23rd Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures, he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou prepares a table before me in the presence of mine enemies, thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Obituary

Mildred H. Carter was born on April 2, 1925 to the late Richard and Fannie Moody in Utica, New York. Her family lived in Virginia and later moved to New York during Mildred's childhood. Mildred was the youngest child of nine. She graduated from Julia Richmond High School in New York City.

Mildred's first marriage was to Linwood Henderson. She later married Elwood Joseph Carter on July 29, 1965 and lived in New York for a while, later moving with her family to Jacksonville, Florida.

Mildred worked for the United States Government. She loved to read, watch movies, dine out, sing in the choir, and attend Bethel Baptist Institutional Church. She also enjoyed watching Judge Judy and Steve Harvey's Family Feud. Mildred has volunteered at Shands Hospital for many years; however, she retired in 2016.

Mildred at the age of 92, transitioned on Monday, April 9, 2017. Her husband, Elwood Joseph Carter transitioned on November 10, 1990.

Mildred is survived by her daughter, Llinda Henderson Jennings; granddaughter, Llinda Carrie; great-grandson, Calil; sister, Mabel Handy; sister-in-law, Juanita Carter; nieces, Deitra Handy and Esther Boyd; great-niece, Love Cassey Gichuki; many other nieces, nephews, cousins in New York, Maryland, Florida and South Carolina.

A Mother's Love

There is no other love like a Mother's love.....

A Mother's love: Is a sanctuary, where our souls can find sweet rest from the struggle and tension of life's fast and futile questions.

A Mother's love: Is like a tower, rising far above the crowd and her smile is like the sunshine, breaking through a threatening cloud.

A Mother's love: Is like a beacon, burning bright with faith and prayer and through the changing scenes of life we can find a haven there.

A Mother's love: Is fashioned after God's enduring love, it is endless and unfailing, like the love of Him above.

For God knew in His great wisdom that He couldn't be everywhere, so He put His little children in a loving mother's care. Lord I thank you for the world's greatest mother you gave me.

We will love you always!
