23rd Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures, he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou prepares a table before me in the presence of mine enemies, thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Miss Me-But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me, I want no rites in a gloom-filled room, why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little- but not for long!

And not with your heads bowed low.

Remember the love that we once shared, miss me, but let me go. For this is a journey that we all must take; and each must go alone;

It’s all part of the Master’s plan. A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart, go to the friends we know and bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.

Miss me - But let me go!
