~A Fallen Limb~

A limb has fallen from the family tree. I keep hearing a voice that says "Grieve Not For Me". Remember the best times, the laughter, and the song. The good life I lived while I was strong. Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you. Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through. My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest. Remembering all, how I truly was blessed. Continue traditions, no matter how small. Go on with your life, don't worry about falls. I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin. Until the day comes we're together again.

Acknowledgement

The family of the late Brother Garry B. Johnson, Jr. are most grateful to GOD for the gift of friends like you who have been so kind and thoughtful during these hours and days of sorrow. Your visits, calls, flowers and every other act of kindness are greatly appreciated. May God bless all of you.

Obituary

Garry Bernard Johnson, Jr. was born on September 23, 1981 to Garry B. Johnson, Sr. and Lindell Frazier in Jacksonville, Florida. He attended the local schools in Duval County, where he was a member of a state championship football team at William M. Raines High School.

Garry was a loving, supportive and respectful, son, brother, grandson, nephew, and friend to all who loved and knew him.

Garry leaves to cherish his memories: his mother, Lindell Frazier; father, Garry B. Johnson Sr.; sisters, Tomeka Frazier, Sophia Frazier and India Frazier; uncles, James M. Johnson and Darryl R. Johnson Sr.; aunts, Deborah B. Jackson (Robert), Tina Y. Johnson and Julie M. Lockhart (Reginald); Fiancé, Kanisha Lowe; step-sisters, Keia Gee-McQuiller and Erica Gee-Chips; step-brother, William Gee; and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, extended relatives and devoted friends.

Let It All To God

Life, you cannot ever tempt me, with glamour and your glow, you are but a pale distraction, and I still have far to go. I have seen your different faces, heard your many tones of voice, but how I live depends on me, because I have a choice. Life, your arms are cold and empty, and your words do not ring true, I have found a gentle master, who loves me more than you. I have done with foolish yearnings for the things I cannot keep, no more years of senseless searching, no more crying in my sleep. I have scars to show my failings, and the wrong turns that I took, only GOD did not forsake me. Though the very mountains shook. And when my days are over, and all the shadows dim, I'll close my eyes and take his hand, and leave the rest to him.

Grace E. Easley

The Lord will not forsake his people for his great name's sake.
