~I Am Learning How To Live~

I am learning how to live in a new way, since that day you were taken away. I am learning how to live with the things left unsaid, knowing I got to say them with every tear that I shed. I am learning how to live by embracing the pain, knowing that you live on through the memories that remain.

I am learning how to live, knowing I will never again see your face and I have peace knowing you're in a better place. I am learning how to live, knowing you're in God's care, It gives me the strength to move on and makes the pain much easier to bear.

Acknowledgements

A friendly smile, a casual touch, these are things that means so much. To know you are with us in our time of sorrow, sharing our prayers, today and tomorrow. We are grateful for family and friends like you. Each call, text, visit, sacrifice of your resources, and all acts of kindness has made the transition of our love one easier to bare. Even in this, God is Good! Please continue to keep us in your prayers and may God continue to bless each of you!

Obituary

Richard Allen Green affectionally known as “Lil Richard, Richy Rich & Billion” was born on April 14, 1996 to Charles Green and Angelica Hogan in Jacksonville, Florida. He graduated from First Coast High School in June 2014. He was employed by Gate Petroleum in Yulee, Florida. Richard was a loving and passionate person who believed family was everything! His passions included sports and music. He recently released his artistry for the world to hear; his final production was entitled, Make It Better, which talks about all the senseless dying that is taking place in Duval County and the world.

Richard had an affectionate spirit that brought joy to everyone that he encountered. Once you encountered Richard, your life would never be the same. He had an infectious laugh that was contagious, and a true comedian that would put Kevin Hart on his knees. Richard was a blessing to all who met him and a genuinely good “Young Man”! Richard accepted Christ at an early age, and once he truly understood his calling he rededicated his life in 2015. He was a member in the Young Adult Ministry and the chosen Jesus in the Easter Cantata.

Richard was released from his physical body on Sunday, July 9, 2017 at the age of 21. Richard was preceded in death by his grandfather, Richard Jones; aunts, Sylvia Leon and Deborah Senior; grandfather, Pratt Hubbard who passed the day after Richard.

Richard is survived by his mother, Angelica Hogan; father, Joseph Hogan; biological, father, Charles Green; sister, Chardanae’ Green; half brothers, Allen and Julius Green; half-sisters, Jinjah and Joi Green; grandmothers, Alland Jones, Maxine Green, and Josephine Hogan; grandfather, Charles Green; great-grandmother, Bertha Way; uncles, James Senior (Renee) and Sterling Jones (Nicole); aunts, Regina Stallings (Israel), Marlo Wilkins (Jerry) and Katina Green; a very special godfather, Garren Royal; godbrother, Marvin Scott III; godsister, Brooklyn Williams; a host of uncles, aunts, cousins and a very special friend, Jatarra Presley all whom he loved dearly.

Though his life was short lived, he has made a major impact on so many lives and he will never be forgotten for he will always be in our hearts.
