Words of Acknowledgement

The family of the late Gussie Lee Belton would like to thank everyone who sent beautiful floral arrangements, food, monetary donations, called us with a kind word, sent a card or were just there to help with anything that needed to be done. The sudden loss of Gussie was made a little easier with the love and support we received from our friends and family. Your expressions of sympathy were greatly appreciated and will never be forgotten. We pray God's blessing upon each and every one of you.

Obituary

Gussie Lee Belton was born on April 8, 1925 in Crawford County, Georgia to Sidney and Olga Hart. She attended the Public Schools in Georgia. Gussie was always full of laughter, it was never a dull moment when she was around. She was a faithful member of New Mount Olive Church of Jacksonville until she could no longer attend.

Gussie enjoyed her word search puzzle book, calls and visits from her family and friends. To know Gussie was to love Gussie. "Suga" was the word! "Hey Suga", Thank you Suga", Love you Suga" and "Bye Suga"!

Gussie worked in Food Service for the Duval Public School Systems for over 32 years until retirement. Gussie was presented a Certificate of Recognition for 100% Attendance for Food Service during the school years 1988-1989. She enjoyed preparing school meals from scratch. From the main course to desserts, it was all good! The school meals are a lot different today.

Gussie passed away Friday, July 14, 2017 at the age of 92. She was preceded her in eternal rest include her parents, Sidney and Olga Hart; devoted husband, Robert Belton, Sr.; sons, Roy Clark and Sylvester Belton; sisters, Mattie Mae Collins and Ethel Hart; and a brother, Oscar Hart.

Gussie is survived by her sons, Robert Belton Jr (Melanie) of Palatka, FL, Rodaton Belton of Jacksonville, FL and Aldaton Youmans of Jacksonville, FL; grandchildren, Davian Belton, Frank Maddox, Kemorah Belton and Rychus Belton; devoted nephew, Ernest Belton (Debbie) of Jacksonville, FL; sisters-in-law, Eleanor Young (Cornell), of Sicklerville, NJ and Grace Belton of Philadelphia, PA; brother-in-law, Clarence Belton (Ruby), of California, City; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and many caring friends.

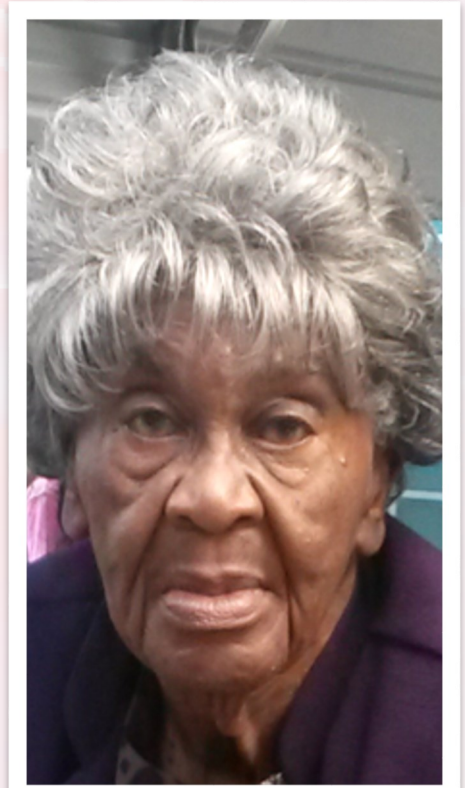

Gussie our love for you is not written on paper, for it can be erased . Nor is our love for you etched in stone, for stone can be broken. But our love for you is inscribed in our hearts, where it shall remain forever.

"Always There"

When you remember me, please do not weep. My body may not be there, It has chosen to sleep. I'm not that far away, my soul lives on, looking down, watching over you and everyone. And when you feel sad and life seems so blue, just remember that my spirit has its arms around you. And on those special days, times that you wish I could see, that cool breeze flowing past you, well, that will be me. So don't be sad, have no fear. God has taken me under his wing, but I'll always be near. I still watch you, every minute, every day, my love and soul are with you, and that's where they will stay.
