"A Daughters Promise"

Every time that I smile, every time that I sigh, I think of your face, and a tear escapes my eye. You were my world, my inspiration and my heart, but when you left me, I thought I would fall apart. You were my best friend, my one true 'confidante', and that's not all you were, you were also my mom. I didn't want to live without you, but you would have wanted me to, and if there's anyone I want to make happy, that anyone is you. I would have given anything to have you back, but I know now that it was meant to be, for you are still watching from up there, and I know you're watching me. I'll make you proud mom, I'm going to fulfill your wish, you're going to see me and smile, that's a daughter's promise.

Acknowledgement

The family wishes to express sincere thanks and gratitude to the many friends and all those who expressed their love, friendship and sympathy during our time of bereavement. May God bless each and every one of you.

Patricia leaves behind to cherish her memories a loving daughter, Lakashia Jernigan of Jacksonville, Florida; mother, Willie Bell Elexander; sisters, Elizabeth Glover, Fredricka Wheeler and Vivian Edwards; brother, Nathaniel Jernigan; nieces, Adrian Champion, Sabrina Thompson, Tashia Davis, Shawanda Mills, Nikeya Berry, Lapanza Atkins, Latisha Carter and Shameka Williams; nephews, Frank Wheeler, Robert Jernigan, Thomas Stevens, Brad Wheeler and Damian Stevens; sister-in-law, Lapanza Houston and a host of other great nieces and great nephews.

If Roses Grow In Heaven

If roses grow in heaven, Lord please pick a bunch for me, place them in my Mother's arms and tell her they're from me.
Tell her I love her and miss her, and when she turns to smile, place a kiss upon her cheek and hold her for a while.
Because remembering her is easy, I do it every day, but there's an ache within my heart that will never go away.
