Obituary

Carolyn M. Joiner, affectionately known as “Mackaline” was born on August 2, 1943 to the Late Bishop Mack Larkins, Sr. and Evangelist Carrie Bell Larkins. Mackaline attended the Public Schools of Duval County, College Park, James Weldon Johnson and New Stanton.

Mackaline moved her membership from West Union Baptist Church to The House of Refuge Holy Church of the Living God, Inc.

Mackaline departed this life to be with the Lord on Friday, November 17, 2017. She was preceded in death by her father, Bishop Mack Larkins; sisters, Barbara Lowe and Loretta “Laura” Sims.

Mackaline leaves to cherish loving memories with her husband, James A. Joiner; mother, Carrie Bell Larkins; brothers, Moses Larkins (Colette) – Atlanta, Ga, Mack Larkins, Jr. (Valerie “Cookie”), Lucious Von Larkins—Atlanta, Ga; sisters, Brenda Larkins and Beverly Larkins Coffey; godchildren, Melody Johnson Vickers, Brandy Johnson and Janae Sims; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends. Among some of her best friends were: Loretta Perry, Lois Reed, Lorraine Grier, Beverly Carson, Leola Lee Scurry and Greg Wilson.

“God Set Me Free”

Don't grieve too long for now I'm free
I've followed the path God set for me
I ran to him when I heard him call
I closed my eyes and left it all.

I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to cry or play
Things left undone must stay that way
I found such peace, I could not stay another day.

My parting has left you with a void
Please fill it with remembered joy
A friendship shared, your laugh, a kiss
Oh yes, these things I know you'll miss.

Be not burdened with ties of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow
My life's been full, you've given so much
Your time, your love and gentle touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief
Lift up your head and share with me
God wanted me now, He set me free!
