~A Fallen Limb~

A limb has fallen from the family tree. I keep hearing a voice that says "Grieve Not For Me". Remember the best times, the laughter, and the song. The good life I lived while I was strong. Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you. Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through. My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest. Remembering all, how I truly was blessed. Continue traditions, no matter how small. Go on with your life, don't worry about falls. I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin. Until the day comes we're together again.

Acknowledgement

We, the family of the late Bro. Lessie Floyd Rogers would like to extend our heartfelt thanks for the many, many expressions of kindness, concern, and love extended to us during the loss of our love one. We ask that God will continuously bless you richly.

Homegoing Celebration for Bro. Lessie Floyd Rogers

Lessie Floyd Rogers was born on December 5, 1925 to the late James and Cecelia Rogers in Daleville, Alabama. On Friday, December 8, 2017, he passed away quietly in Fernandina Beach, Florida. Lessie was married to Irene Louise Rogers on September 26, 1945 and to this union seven children were born four daughters and three sons. They were happily married for over 72 years. He was a loving husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, brother, uncle and friend.

Lessie was baptized by Bro. John Henry Clay at a tent meeting in Enterprise, Alabama. He was a faithful member at the Adams Street Church of Christ, Enterprise, Alabama for many years. He was always seeking to bring lost souls to Christ. Lessie served as a Teacher, Van Driver, Trustee, Song Leader and an Elder at the Adams Street Church of Christ. He was an advocate for Christian Education and was a supporter of Southwestern Christian College, Terrell, Texas for many years. In 2010, he received an award from Governor Bob Riley of Alabama for his dedication and support for Christian Education. During the last ten years of his life he and his wife (Irene) moved to Fernandina Beach, Florida to be cared for by their daughter, Annette Rogers Calfee. During these years, he moved his membership to the Northside Church of Christ, Jacksonville, Florida where he was a faithful member until his illness.

Lessie worked as an auto-body repair technician for several car dealerships, and professional body shops. He was also a co-owner of The Professional Body Shop of Enterprise, Alabama for many years. He truly enjoyed his profession. He enjoyed spending time with his family as well as meeting new people.

Lessie is survived by his wife of 72 years, Irene Louise McCray Rogers; four daughters, Annette Rogers Calfee of Fernandina Beach, FL, Alice Rogers Caldwell of Fernandina Beach, FL, Diana Rogers Henderson of Orlando, FL and Janie Rogers Harris (Martin) of Huntsville, AL; three sons, Leslie Rogers, Jr. of Edgewood, Maryland, Luke Rogers (Virginia) of Jacksonville, FL and Craig Rogers of Montgomery, AL; 13 grandchildren; 12 great-grandchildren; one brother, William Rogers of Enterprise, AL; one sister, Earnestine Rogers Harley of Enterprise, AL and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and many friends.
