~A Fallen Limb~

A limb has fallen from the family tree. I keep hearing a voice that says "Grieve Not For Me". Remember the best times, the laughter, and the song. The good life I lived while I was strong. Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you. Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through. My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest. Remembering all, how I truly was blessed. Continue traditions, no matter how small. Go on with your life, don't worry about falls. I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin. Until the day comes we're together again.

Acknowledgement

We are most grateful to God for everyone who have been so kind and thoughtful during these hours of sorrow. Your visits, calls, and any act of kindness have given us strength and inspiration for the facing of this hour. May God forever bless each of you.

Life Reflections

Carolyn Bray-Andrews was born on October 18, 1951 to the late James ad Lillian Bray in Eastman, Georgia. She attended the Public Schools in Jacksonville, Florida. In the summer of 1968 Carolyn married the love of her life, Norman Andrews, Sr. and to this union three children were born.

Our angel Carolyn received her wings on December 11, 2017. She obeyed and took the Lord’s hand and went peacefully on her journey into eternity. Carolyn was preceded in death by her husband, Norman Andrews, Sr.; father, James Bray, Sr.; mother, Lillian Bray; brothers, Ricky Bray and James Bray, Jr.; brother-in-law, Charlie Battle; nephew, Anthony Jones; and grandson, Carlos Andrews. Carolyn was loved by many and will be missed by all.

Carolyn leaves to cherish her loving memories: three sons, NaKeith Andrews (Monique), Norman Andrews Jr. (Wanda) and Joel Andrews (Sharisse); goddaughter, Judy Williams Gibson; two sisters, Janice Battle (Willie Heard) and Sharon Bray; one brother, Robert Bray (Gail) and a host of grandchildren, great- grandchildren, among them Renon Andrews; a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends, among them Scotty Hendley (Sabrina).

“Her Journey’s Just Begun”

Don’t think of her as gone away her journey’s just begun, life holds so many facets this earth is only one. Just think of her as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and no years.

Think how she must be wishing that we could know today, how nothing but our sadness can really pass away and think of her as living in the hearts of those she touched . For nothing loved is ever lost, and she was loved so much.
