~A Fallen Limb~

A limb has fallen from the family tree. I keep hearing a voice that says "Grieve Not For Me". Remember the best times, the laughter, and the song. The good life I lived while I was strong. Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you. Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through. My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest. Remembering all, how I truly was blessed. Continue traditions, no matter how small. Go on with your life, don't worry about falls. I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin. Until the day comes we're together again.

Acknowledgements

Perhaps you made a comforting call or sat quietly in a chair on behalf of the family, we wish to express. Perhaps you sent a card or dish of food; if so we saw there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words any friend could say, perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day, your audience at this service. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much, whatever the part. May God bless you!

Obituary

Sylister “CJ” McCants Jr. was born on May 28, 1945 to Sylister McCants Sr. and Irene Bell (Packer) McCants in Camden, Alabama.

Sylister worked with the City of Jacksonville in construction for over 20 years. He retired with the City of Jacksonville nine years ago. Sylister enjoyed riding his bicycle and spending time with his friends. He loved sitting on the porch watching the kids go by from school.

Sylister passed away on December 31, 2017 in Jacksonville, Florida.

Sylister leaves to mourn his passing: daughter, Gabrielle McCant; brother, Harry L. McCants (Agrett); sisters, Rosa L. Gay, Leola McCants and Creola M. Lanier (James) and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“Those We Love Remain With Us”

Those we love remain with us for love itself lives on, and cherished memories never fade because a loved one's gone.

Those we love can never be more than a thought apart, far as long as there is memory, they'll live on in the heart.
