A Message of Gratitude

Sometimes bad things happen to people we love. It's hard to know what to say to help, but your caring words can make a difference. We the family of Carolyn Joyce Lindsey express our most sincere appreciation for the care and concern you have shown during our time of bereavement. Your kind expressions of sympathy demonstrated through your calls, texts, flowers, food, visits, prayers and all other acts of kindness, both seen and unseen, are greatly appreciated. What you have done will never be forgotten, and we pray God's abundant blessings will always be yours.

Life Reflections

Carolyn Joyce Hopkins-Lindsey was born in Jacksonville, Florida on March 24, 1943 to the late Gabriel and Edna Mae Hopkins. She confessed Christ at an early age uniting with St. Paul AME Church, later joining Faust Temple COGIC regularly participating until health prevented her. Carolyn showed much enthusiasm when asked of her to help in any auxiliary capacity, unselfishly. Her hands and heart were extended in love to all who met her. Carolyn attended the local schools in Duval

County, graduating from New Stanton High School in the class of 1961.

Carolyn was employed for many years with the State of Florida Department of Children and Families and Nesbit Restaurant . Also worked as a Nursing Assistant. She later met and married William Lindsey (deceased) in Jacksonville, Florida on May 9, 1964. From this union one son, Quansulo Lindsey was born.

Carolyn departed this life on Saturday, August 18, 2018. She was preceded in death by her parents, Gabriel and Edna Mae Hopkins; sisters, Elizabeth Williams, Evan Hopkins, Josephine White, Ella Hopkins (Summerville, South Carolina) and Virginia Hopkins (Jacksonville, Florida); brothers, James Hopkins (Summerville, South Carolina), Nathaniel and Gary Hopkins, Jacksonville, Florida.

Carolyn leaves to mourn her passing a son, Quansulo Lindsey (Washington, DC); sisters, Alice Hopkins (Atlanta, Georgia), Harriett (McDonald) Burch (Jacksonville, Florida) and Brenda Hopkins (Summerville, South Carolina); grandchildren, ShaQuanda Johnson (Los Angeles, California), Jacquez Lindsey (Los Angeles, California) and Ratasha Lindsey (Atlanta, Georgia); great-grand, Jordan Lindsey (Los Angeles, California); godson, Derrick McIntyre II (Pasadena, California); notable senior family members, Albert Jenkins (Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania) and Hattie Mae Nesbitt (Jacksonville, Florida); numerous nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.

Cherishing Memories

"Grand-C"

I love you so much. I'm forever grateful for your love, care, and kind spirit. I love how you always put your grandchildren first. I know your desire to worship God, read the word, and be with the saints has been fulfilled in your transition. Your words, encouragement, and love will forever be in my heart. I appreciate all the trips you made to California, your laugh, your determination, and your wisdom. My heart is full of gratitude because we spent our last birthday together. Up until you fell ill, I always got a call from you on March 23rd saying "Happy Birthday, Shaquanda!" and I had the privilege of calling you on March 24th to say, "Happy Birthday, Grand-C!" knowing that I will never have the opportunity to do that anymore makes me so sad. I'm happy I have pictures and video of us celebrating from this past March! I love you and even in my sorrow, I know you are much happier. To God be the glory.

~Your granddaughter, Shaquanda Denise Lindsey
