~A Fallen Limb~

A limb has fallen from the family tree. I keep hearing a voice that says "Grieve Not For Me". Remember the best times, the laughter, and the song. The good life I lived while I was strong. Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you. Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through. My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest. Remembering all, how I truly was blessed. Continue traditions, no matter how small. Go on with your life, don't worry about falls. I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin. Until the day comes we're together again.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair. Perhaps you sent a floral spray, if so, we saw it there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend would say. Perhaps you were not there at all; just thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you very much whatever the part. May God continue to bless and keep you in our prayers.

Sincere Appreciation and Love,

~The family of the late Stella Mae Axson

Life Reflections

Ms. Stella Mae Axson, also known as “Tina”, was born on November 14, 1932 to the late Leroy and Georgia Axson in Savannah, Georgia. She lived in Riceboro, Georgia for 14 years and relocated to Jacksonville, Florida. Stella continued her education in the Duval County Public School Systems. She was employed for 17 years at Jacksonville Beach hotels in housekeeping. Stella then became a supervisor at all Saint Catholic Nursing Home on Riverside in the housekeeping departments for 17 plus years. She also worked for Cathedral Gerontology Center for over 10 plus years where she retired.

Stella joined Grace Baptist Church at an early age under the leadership of Rev. Brown. She was a member of various organizations throughout the church. She was a member for over 50 years and served faithfully in the choir and prayer ministry.

Stella departed this life on Tuesday, October 9, 2018 at Pavilion Hospice surrounded by her family. Stella was preceded in death by her father, Leroy Axson; mother, Georgia Axson; sister, Ruth (Mike) and brother, Willis Axson.

Stella leaves to cherish her precious memories: daughters, Doneese Kemp and Angela Axson; son, James (Frankie) Axson; grandchildren, DeAungelo, Shantiece, Joekia, Star, Sparkle, Shajamia, BJ, Jamiron; nine great-grandchildren; niece, Inez Axson; devoted nephews, Willie Axson, Quincy Axson and Ervin (Denise) Barron; goddaughters, Coretha and Doretha Walker; devoted goddaughter, Wanda (Curtis) Bailey and a plethora of extended family, friends and loved ones.

“Stella will truly be missed by all who has known her”
