23rd Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures, he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou prepares a table before me in the presence of mine enemies, thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever. Amen

Acknowledgement

True friends are like buried treasure, precious, valuable and most rare. But enemies are like stones you can see them lying around all over everywhere. The family appreciate the cards, flowers, food, gifts, monetary donations and even the kindest words that you've spoken to encourage us. For this we say Thank You! God bless you, be encouraged!

*Celebrating The Life
Clifford Allen "Hamburger" Williams*

Clifford was born on October 21, 1936 to Eddie Lee and Charlie Mae Williams in Jacksonville, Florida. He confessed Christ at the age of 12 years old uniting with St. Thomas Baptist Church and re-dedicated his life again at the age of 81. Clifford attended the local schools of Duval County graduating from Old Stanton Senior High, Class of 1954.

Clifford met Betty J. Pullins and they had dated since the tender age of 14, he later married his sweetheart in 1955 in Folkston, Georgia and they were married for 63 years. From this union two children were born, Debra and Cherlyn.

Clifford departed this life on Saturday, October 27, 2018. He was preceded in death by his parents, Eddie and Charlie Mae Williams; daughter, Cherlyn Williams; father and mother-in-law, Jessie and Adell Pullins, Sr.

Clifford leaves to cherish his memories: his wife, Betty Williams; daughter, Minister Debra Jeffreys; grandsons, Terrell T. Jeffreys, Tramainel L. Jeffreys, Treshawn Jeffreys, The Honorable Mentioned Dallas Brown, Jr., Tasha Brunge; granddaughters, Tramaya "Sparkle" Jeffreys and Nicole "Nikki" Jeffreys; a faithful and devoted godson, Lonnie Simms and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, other relatives and friends.
