

"Miss Me But Let Me Go"

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me. I want no rites in a gloom-filled room why cry for a soul set free? Miss me a little, but not too long and not with your head bowed low. Remember the love that we once shared, Miss me, but let me go. For death is a journey that we all must take and each must go alone. It's all a part of the Master's plan, a step on the road to home. When you are lonely and sick at heart go to the friends we know and bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss Me-But Let me Go!
