23rd Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures, he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou prepares a table before me in the presence of mine enemies, thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever. Amen

Acknowledgement

Word of thanks seems so inadequate for all of the kindness that has been bestowed upon our family. We thank you for the encouraging visits, the comforting calls, the lovely cards, the beautiful floral arrangements, and the sincere words of solace. We are finding strength in knowing earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal. May God bless you richly for blessing us.

Obituary

Earl Lorenzo Berring was born on April 17, 1975 to Reginald and Judy Berring, Sr. in Jacksonville, Florida. He confessed Christ at an early age and was baptized in Greater Moncrief Missionary Baptist Church. He attended the local schools in Duval County.

Earl departed this life Saturday, November 10, 2018. He was preceded in death by his grandparents, Douglas and Delores Hills; brother, Reginald Berring, Jr.; aunt, Sandra Hills.

Earl leaves to cherish his memories a wonderful family: son, Tavorias (Courtney); daughters, Shantrell and Patricia; ten grandchildren; father, Reginald Berring, Sr. (Francis); mother, Judy Smith; brothers, Lenard (Sheila) and Lapear; sisters, Deanna (Michael), Megan, Sheena, Regina, Gershoma and Zipporah; and a host of sorrowing uncles, aunts, nephews, nieces, cousins and friends.

Those We Love Remain With Us

Those we love remain with us for love itself lives on,
and cherished memories never fade
because a loved one's gone.

Those we love can never be more than a thought apart,
far as long as there is memory,
they'll live on in the heart.
