I Am Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free, I'm following the path God laid for me. I took his hand when I heard his call, I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day, to laugh, to love, to work, to play. Tasks left undone must stay that way, I've found that peace at the close of the day. If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, ah yes, these things I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My Life's been full, I savored much, good friends, good times, and loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief, don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your heart and share with me, God wanted me now, He set me free.

Acknowledgements

The family of the late Mr. Frederick M. Scott acknowledge with grateful and sincere appreciation for all the prayers, messages of condolences, visits, and phone calls of sympathy and thoughtfulness from everyone who has comforted us in our hour of bereavement. May God's richest blessings be upon each of you.

Obituary

Mr. Frederick Marcel Scott affectionately known to friends as “Fred” or “Rickey” was born August 30, 1960 in Jacksonville, Florida to Miss Theresa Scott. He graduated from Stanton High School and went on to serve his country as an Army National Guard. After an Honorable Discharge, Fred went on to work for the City of Jacksonville and CSI Geo in Jacksonville, Florida. His church affiliation was New Beginnings Missionary Baptist Church, Rev. Dr. Kim Anderson.

Frederick departed this life on November 25, 2018. He was preceded in death by his brother, Bernard Scott and grandmother, Elizabeth Scott.

Frederick leaves to cherish his memory: his one and only child, Sharena Hall; a devoted and loving mother, Theresa Scott; three grandchildren, Lajazmyn Hall, Lataujah Hall, and Sammye Hall III; one great-grandson, Aayden Walton; two sisters, Rozella Johnson-Haney (Norman) and Elizabeth Hartley; three brothers, George Scott, Rodell Johnson and Lyndon Johnson; life partner, Sylvia Ann Arline; one stepson, Arthur Arline (Tameka); four step-grandchildren, Raekwon Arline, Jada Arline, Jade Arline and Jayren Arline; best friend, Erich Dennis; close friend, Evelyn Drayton; he also leaves behind a host of nieces, nephews, other family members and friends.

Those we love don't go away,
They walk beside us every day,
Unseen, unheard, but always near,
Still loved, still missed
and very dear.
