~ A Fallen Limb ~

A limb has fallen from the family tree. I keep hearing a voice that says "Grieve Not For Me". Remember the best times, the laughter, and the song. The good life I lived while I was strong. Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you. Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through. My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest. Remembering all, how I truly was blessed. Continue traditions, no matter how small. Go on with your life, don't worry about falls.

I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin.
Until the day comes we're together again.

Acknowledgement

The family of Jessie Wright is grateful for all of your prayers and expressions of love, concern and kindness shown during this time of bereavement. Please continue to pray. We love each of you!

Reflection of Life

I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race,
I have kept the faith.
~2 Timothy 4:7~

Jessie Wright was born February 10, 1948 in Warrington, Florida to the late Rev. Isaac Wright, Sr. and Johnnie Middleton Wright. After graduating from Booker T. Washington High School in Pensacola, Florida, he joined the United States Army in June, 1966 and served three years. Jessie's tours of duty included the Vietnam War. After leaving the Army, he worked at Armstrong Cork Corporation and AT&T in Pensacola.

Jessie was married to the late Helen Wright. He moved to Jacksonville in 1984 and Bethel Baptist Institutional Church became his church home where he was an Usher. Jessie reported to duty to fellowship with his friends at Mary Singleton Senior Center each day during the week. He was a man who respected and loved all people.

Jessie answered his call for duty in the Heavenly Army of the Lord on Tuesday, December 11, 2018.

Jessie leaves cherished memories and is survived by his beloved daughter, Maritza Woodfaulk (Ira Woodfaulk I); son, Marcus Wright; grandchildren, Ira Woodfaulk II; Markeita Wright, Ryan Johnson and Ariana Dickerson; great-grandchildren, Gregory Moye IV, Aniyah Johnson and Makayla Johnson; three sisters, Julia Lamons (Colonel Albert E. Lamons Sr.), Shirley Watson and Carlond Gray; two brothers, Isaac Wright Jr. and Rev. James Wright (Geraldine Wright); nieces, Michele Wright, Dr. Phenessa Gray, Michele Raiford, Desirae Wright, Janelle Sanderson, Kaisha Wright; nephews, Al Lamons, Jr., Kevin Wright, Dwayne Lamons, Roy Williams, James Brian Wright and Jamin Bruce Wright; other relatives and friends.
