Happy Goodbye

I can't believe you've finally gone, to a better place with better songs. I'll always remember how you smiled and made many hours worth their while. Through and through it was okay, I'm sure last time I saw you will stay. A happy goodbye from one of your number one fans, may you always be and remain our friend.

~Love, Phaaryl Wilson

"I Miss You"

An inspiration to which is known. Quick to provide and take care of his home. A proud father he was and everyone could see, with 4 boys and his girls multiplied by three.

He lived a long life and his wisdom he always shared. His family being the center of his world, he always cared. With his loving wife and his grandchildren too, he even had his great-grands to pass inspiration to. So, even though he has moved on he leaves a message for you within his legacy. I leave the reflection of you being the reflection of me.

Love, Yvette Ferguson

Grandpa was very kind and sweet, strong nature and good willed. He was nice to everyone he'd meet, and in baking was extremely skilled. His love helped his family grow, his knowledge helped his family see. His determination helped his family glow, and from these things I know my grandpa loved me. Love you Grandpa!
