~Don't Cry For Me~

Don't cry for me, I will be okay. Heaven is my home now, and this is where I'll stay. Don't cry for me, I'm where I belong. I want you to be happy and try to stay strong. Don't cry for me. It was just my time, but I will see you someday on the other side. Don't cry for me. I am not alone. The angels are with me to welcome me home. Don't cry for me, for I have no fear. All my pain is gone, and Jesus took my tears. Don't cry for me. This is not the end. I'll be waiting here for you when we meet again.

Acknowledgements

Our heartfelt thanks and appreciation is extended to each of you who have shared in our loss. Each kind expression of love and sympathy has been a source of comfort to us and will forever be held dear in our hearts. May God richly bless and keep each of you.

Life Reflection's of Queen (Queenie) Esther Roberts Mitchell

Queenie was born December 17, 1966 to the late Thomas Roberts, Sr. and Thelma Brown in Jacksonville, Florida. She attended the Duval County Public School Systems, graduating from William M. Raines High School. Queenie was employed by I.M. Sulzbacher Center for the homeless, 13 years before she retired in 2010 due to her illness. Queen had a gift to help those in need, that's why the residents at I.M. Sulzbacher would confide in her while they stayed there during a difficult time in their own lives. They would always have nice stories to tell about how she was good to them during their stay at the center.

Queenie also known for giving out great advice would help friends and family members in need. She will be remembered for her warm beautiful smile, good heart, sense of humor and being out spoken. Queenie inherited her name "Queen" from her late maternal grandmother, Queen Esther Foster. She loved her name "Queen" which she took pride in filling it out and living up to great standards. She was a true Queen in the eyes of those who loved her. In 2008 she bought a home, where she hosted family gatherings for holiday's, repasses and cook-outs in order to bring family and friends together. Queen also loved to go shopping and would purchase things to give away to family and friends if they needed it or to express her love. Queen was a great mother to her 4 beautiful daughters and grandchildren. Queen was preceded in death by her eldest sister, Mary Miller.

Queenie accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior some years ago. She always had a connection with God, which showed through her blessed life and strong soul. She was a great example of the Beauty and Grace of God.

Queenie leaves to cherish beautiful memories: the love of her life, of 30 years, her husband, Jerome Allen; daughters and son-in-laws, Joshia Woods (Joshua), Johnshae Butler (Andre), Leonda Davis (Sherman), Jerrica Riley (Dominique Sr.); grandchildren, Johnhae Waddell, Ty'Yari Washington, Ro'Shaunna Simmons, Anzariah Butler, An'nesty Butler, her name sake, Queen Diam'ri Riley, Royalty Kirkland, Dominique Riley, Jr., Jah'Rico Riley; siblings, Thomas Roberts, Jr. and Brenda Roberts; brother-in-laws, Johnny Wright and Tom Cason; stepchildren, Vanessa Kirkland, John Stokes and Carjohntae Mitchell; her favorite cousins, Tanya Jones, Leatron Hill and Vincent Foster; best friends, Debra Townsend and Michelle Norris; favorite aunt, Linda Foster; goddaughter, Talisha Demps; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Beautiful Memories
