To Those I Love & Those That Love Me

When I am gone, release me, let me go; I have so many things to see and do; you must not tie yourself to me with tears; be happy that we had so many years; I gave you my love, you can only guess how much you gave me in happiness; I thank you for the love you have shown but now it's time I traveled on alone.

So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must then let your grief be comforted by trust. It's only for a while that we must part, so bless the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away for life goes on so if you need me, call and I will come though you can't see me or touch me, I'll be near.

And if you listen with your heart, you will hear, all my love around you, loud and clear. And then, when you must come this way alone, I'll greet you at Heaven's gate with a smile and a "Welcome Home."

Acknowledgements

The family wishes to express our deep appreciation and sincerely thanks for your kind expressions of sympathy during our time of bereavement. Your comforting expressions of sympathy will always be remembered with sincere gratitude. Special thanks to Pastor Renita McCray and Deacon Johnny McCray for always being there; your kindness will never be forgotten. May God forever bless each of you.

Obituary

Isaiah Ra'shaad Bing was born on May 26, 1992 in Jacksonville, FL to his parents Shantell Bing and Roosevelt Brightwell. He was educated in the private and public schools of Duval County, and was a 2011 graduate of Robert E. Lee Senior High School. Having accepted Christ as his Savior at an early age, he was baptized at Tru- Way Church of the Risen Christ. His church affiliation at the time of his passing was with Christian Fellowship Center under the leadership of Pastor Darryl L. Wakefield, Sr. Isaiah also served five commendable years at the Duval County Courthouse as an Official Records Clerk where he was most recently given the honorary opportunity to work as acting supervisor of his department.

To know Isaiah was to experience a man of great caliber like none other, soft-spoken with a huge impact to those he came across. If you would ask him what he wanted to be he would say a "HERO" and he lived up to be just that! To know him was to love him, and if he loved you, you knew it for sure. He cared for and took pride in helping anyone he could without regret or broadcast. Isaiah was so pure at heart, that he saw the best in the "worst" of things and never hesitated to harness his "cape", extend his self and for this his life, though wrongfully taken, is worth honoring. Isaiah's life, legacy, and his works will never be forgotten. His mark is FOREVER!

Isaiah was preceded in death by grandparents, Roosevelt and Charlie Brightwell; granddads, Woodrow Bing Jr. and Pete Sutton Jr. He leaves to cherish his memory: mother, Shantell M. Bing; father, Roosevelt L. Brightwell (Nicole); brothers, Roosevelt Brightwell Jr., Jordan Bing, and Todd Brightwell; sisters, Marriyah Bing, Sydney Bonnett, Madison Bonnett, and Natasha Stokes; nephew, Jah'mauriee Moore; grandmother (Second Mother), Ann Sutton; aunt, Trimaine Williams; uncle, Pete Sutton III; Super Friends, Jada Lynn W. Bronson, Kasey Jones, Robert Sutton, and Darnell Sallins; Godchildren, Jatari Jones Jr. and Ja'Nelle Jones; Godmothers, Laverne Ross and Centearia Smith; Mentor, Leon Jackson, including The City of Jacksonville Courthouse, a host of other aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews; a host of Bing and Brightwells; and other relatives and friends.
