H Time for Everything

<sup>1</sup> There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under heaven: <sup>2</sup> a time to be born and a time to die, a time to plant and a time to uproot, <sup>3</sup> a time to kill and a time to heal, a time to tear down and a time to build, <sup>4</sup> a time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance, <sup>5</sup> a time to scatter stones and a time to gather them, a time to embrace and a time to to refrain, <sup>6</sup> a time to search and a time to give up, a time to keep and a time to throw away, <sup>7</sup> a time to tear and a time to love and a time to be silent and a time to speak, <sup>8</sup> a time to love and a time to hate, a time for war and a time for peace.

Ecclesiastes 3: 1-8 (NIV)

In Appreciation

The family of Mrs. Alma Styles Hanna gratefully extends its gratitude to all who have shown their love via cards, telephone calls, visits, food, floral tributes and other acts of kindness, especially prayers. May God's peace and blessings be upon each of you.

elebration

Gervice 11:00 AM, Thursday, August 22, 2019 Greater Beulah Missionary Baptist Church 9550 Ribault Avenue Jacksonville, Florida 32208 Reverend Anthony L. Willis, Sr., Officiating

Sis. Hanna was born on February 9, 1939 in Abbeville, Georgia to the late Mr. Jim and Mrs. Francena Styles. She was educated in the public schools of Abbeville. She later moved to Jacksonville, Florida in the late 1950s (early 1960s), where she began a career, which spanned over thirty years, in the field of health and public service with the Duval County Health Department (DCHD). After retiring from the DCHD, Mrs. Hanna continued her passion for giving back by working with the Boys and Girls Clubs of Northeast Florida for nearly 10 years.

In addition to her professional life of service, Mrs. Hanna (Alma) was a dedicated daughter, mother, grandmother, nana, cousin, and friend. There was no one whom she would not help and the word "stranger" was not in her vocabulary. All who encountered Mrs. Hanna (Alma) met a friend. Her kitchen, as well as her home, was always open. She was a champion of the downtrodden, encourager to the uninspired, and helper to the needy. The impact she made upon others is indescribable and uncountable.

Sis. Hanna was a dedicated and faithful member of the GBMBC. Her former duties at GBMBC were; she served as the Youth Counselor where she often had the youth at her house for various meetings and gatherings; she was a member of Usher Board No. 1; a member of District No. 1; Senior Women Missionary Society; where she held the position of Vice President from 2005 until her health failed and she was the Secretary of the Spiritual Choir. She was a member that loved her Pastor and church. You could often hear her encouraging her Pastor by saying, "sing Pastor".

Sis. Hanna departed this life on Thursday, August 15, 2019. She was preceded in death by her mother, Francena Styles Hutchins; father, Jim Styles; stepfather, Clifford Hutchins; brothers, Willie J. Styles, and Frank Styles Sr.; and longtime friend, Mrs. Annabelle Hathcock.

Sis. Hanna leaves to cherish her memories: three sons, Sherman Styles (Joan) of Abbeville, Georgia, Richard S. Hanna (Annette) of Atlanta, Georgia, and Albert C. Hanna (Georgette) of Jacksonville, Florida; grandchildren, Herman D. Styles (Delia) of Houston, Texas, Pernell B. Styles of Englewood, New Jersey, Percival B. Styles of Abbeville, Georgia, Jamar Hanna of Jacksonville, Florida, Latasha N. Baker of Jacksonville, Florida, Amber O'Kelly (Anson) of Atlanta, Georgia, Xavier C. Styles, Abbeville, Georgia and Aierress C. Hanna of Jacksonville, Florida; a great great-granddaughter, Taliyah Z. Southern of Abbeville, Georgia; uncles, Mr. Connie Dwight (Geraldine) of Abbeville, Georgia and Mr. Moses Dwight (Frances) of Atlanta, Georgia; nieces and nephews, Ella Swain (Eugene) of McDonough, Georgia, Robin Colvin (Louis) of Jacksonville, Florida, Frank Styles (Sheral) of Fayetteville, Georgia, Freddie Styles (Clarissa) of Columbus, Georgia; brother-in-law, Mr. William Hanna of Atlanta, Georgia; sister-in-law, Mrs. Carrie Styles of Atlanta, Georgia; special friends, Mrs. Edna Corey of Jacksonville, Florida, and Mrs. Harriet Hayes of Jacksonville, Florida; her devoted cousins, Mr. Will and Mrs. Fannie Baker of Jacksonville, Florida; a devoted cousin/daughter, Mrs. Felicia Baker-Davis (Michael) of Chesapeake, Virginia; godchildren, Jada Chinn of Jacksonville, Florida, Tanya McBride of Jacksonville, Florida, Queenie Dregreaffread of Jacksonville, Florida, LaKeisha Brisbane of Jacksonville, Florida, Oliver R. Saunders of Washington, D.C., and Andre Washington of Jacksonville, Florida; Nana's Boy, Evan O'Neal Davis of Chesapeake, Virginia; and a host of great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and friends.
