~ A Tribute To My Family ~

Patrick I heard a voice and I had no other choice, I had to leave and that's something we all must do. I realized God knew best and now I must rest. Ericka, yes I'm sound asleep; just please place me near mom and dad feet. For you may see this as sad, but for me I'm kind of glad. I shall no longer suffer anymore and one day we'll meet at Heaven's door. Stephen you will shed some painful tears, but as your angel I'll be watching over you down through the years. To my babies and grands don't mourn over my homegoing for long, because on some glad morning you will come along. Stephanie now that I'm gone, you may feel alone, but follow in my footprints and grow some wings and forget about the troubles life brings. So to my grands and siblings for the Lord has prepared my mansion in the sky, now just close your eyes and watch me fly. Put your trust in Jesus our Savior, as he listens while you pray... And please don't worry about me, I'm A OK!!!!!!

~Lynn~

Acknowledgement

We are most grateful to God for the gift of friends like you who have been so kind and thoughtful during these hours of sorrow. Your visits, calls, flowers and every act of kindness have given us strength and inspiration for the facing of this hour. May God forever bless each of you.

Obituary
of Saralyn Daisy Butler

Saralyn affectionately known as “Lynn” was born April 15, 1949 in Jacksonville, Florida to the late Mr. Richard A. Lundy Sr. and Mrs. Sara Mae Lundy. She was the second child and only girl amongst her four siblings.

Saralyn attended the local schools of Duval County and graduated from William Marion Raines, Class of 1967 in Jacksonville, Florida. She retired from Prudential Insurance Company after 33 years of dedicated service. Thereafter, Saralyn devoted her time to caring for her grandchildren, watching football and taking care of her numerous plants. Saralyn was a member of St Paul Missionary Baptist Church, under the pastorate of Bishop John E. Guns.

Saralyn departed this life on Monday morning, October 28, 2019. She leaves to cherish loving memories with her children, Patrick Durham, Ericka Lundy, Stephen Butler and Stephanie Butler; grandchildren, L. Frank Swain Jr., Javon Durham, De’Ivan Hill, Za’Mare Butler, Kyle Durham and Samiyah Butler; siblings, Richard A. Lundy Jr., Arthur T. Lundy, Wayne C. Lundy and Kenneth T.
