Acknowledgments

The family of Beverly Williams gratefully and compassionately acknowledges your acts of kindness, thoughts and expressions of love and your abundance of prayers. You have assisted, comforted and blessed us much more than we can articulate. We humbly salute each of you for sharing and celebrating our beloved's memory. May God bless you and may the Holy Spirit always be with you.

A Mother's Hands

Hands that rocked the cradle from the moment of my birth,
Their tender touch remembered by those still here on Earth.

Soft as silk those hands that taught me how to pray,
Banishing childhood fears; they soothed each one away.

When I grew much older and troubles came my way,
Those hands caressing mine did more than words could say.
Mother's hands were gentle, they're missed so very much,

I'd give the world to feel once more their warm and tender touch.

Those hands were full of comfort now they lie at rest,

But memories hold them close to the ones they served the best.

OBITUARY

Beverly Gillespie Williams was born to the late Louis Robinson and Aileen Gillespie in Cheraw, SC on April 21, 1947. She was reunited with her beloved ones on December 2, 2019. 1 Timothy 5:5 - "The widow who is really in need and left alone puts her hope in God and continues night and day to pray and ask God for help. She was joined in holy matrimony to Hezekiah Williams on December 28, 1981. They remained devoted to one another until his death. Psalm 127:3 - 3 Lo, children are an heritage of the LORD: and the fruit of the womb is his reward. The extension of their love for another welcomed two sons, Robert (Se'Lena) Wingfield, James Wingfield, and Rossie Boyd with whom she shared her faith, love, and importance of family. She was further rewarded when she became the doting grandmother of Jamison, Brenden, Derrick, Alycia, My'Esha, and Mariah. Beverly was the second born of three children. She leaves to honor her memory: Her eldest sister, Evon Turner and younger brother, "Bebop".

Isaiah 61:3 - 3 To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, that he might be glorified. She is proceeded in death by her Sister-in Law Dr. Betty Murphy. She also leaves to her beauty to her extended family: Donald Williams (Regina), Annette Williams Kellam, Billy Murphy, Clinton Kermit Williams, Sandra Yvonne Blackmon, Deborah V. Freeman, and Angela Marie Stansberry.

Acts 20:35 I have shewed you all things, how that so laboring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive. Beverly openly testified about the peace she gained when he professed and committed her life to Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. She understood her life was never her own and found great honor in being a servant. Because of her service and faithfulness at Emmanuel Church of God in Christ she was accepted onto The Mother's Board. She evangelized to many people and was never ashamed to testify regarding a hope that could only be realized in Christ.
