The only upsetting part about this physical world is that it is temporary, but when you think of the spiritual world, all that goes away because we all meet again eventually forever. Uncle Chickenman will always be remembered and never forgotten because he lives through you/us now. Soap is for the body and tears are for the soul. There is no right or wrong way to grieve, only the way that is right for YOU & Every situation in life is good, make sure to enjoy and receive it fully and when life is not so good, remember that it will not last forever.

Better days are on the way...

To my family...I OVERLY love you

Uncle Chickenman... You will be MISSED GREATLY!!!!

From your Lil Leatta (Stasha)

Obituary

A beautiful and Christian life came to a close on Saturday, February 15, 2020.

Mr. Dennis Leonorris Mitchell, known to everyone as “Chickenman,” son of the late David Mitchell and Leatta Christopher Day, was born on April 18, 1949 in Chester, FL.

Dennis attended the public schools of Nassau County, graduating from Peck High School in 1968. In high school, Dennis was the #1 punter for the football team and was considered a “Star Athlete.” After graduating from High School, he enlisted in the United States Army, where he served 3 years and did 2 tours to Vietnam. Touring over in Vietnam is where he assumed the name, “Chickenman.” Returning home from the military, Dennis worked on many jobs. He worked at the Pogy Plant in the mid to late 60’s, worked on the shrimp/fishing boats, and also worked in construction at Container Mill. Dennis later became employed at PCA Box Plant in Jacksonville, FL, from where he retired in 2010.

Dennis enjoyed and loved bowling in his spare time. On Saturday’s, he enjoyed going to the Yulee Bowling Alley where he taught the Yulee Strikers & Youth League the fundamentals of bowling.

At an early age, Dennis accepted the Lord as his personal Savior. Dennis attended Elm Street Church of God and later joined Chester Church of God with his mother, where he served as a Deacon and worked in many other areas in the church.

In 1978, Dennis married Cassandra Pinkney, in St. Mary’s GA. To this union, one child, a daughter, “Ulysessia, daddy’s little girl,” was born.

Dennis was preceded in death by his wife, Cassandra, and two brothers, Frank Christopher and David Mitchell.

He leaves to mourn a loving daughter, Ulysessia and two beautiful grandsons, Marley and Mikell; five brothers: Tommy L. Mitchell (Gladys), Savannah, GA, Charles L. Mitchell (Grace), Fernandina Beach, FL, Reginald (R.L) Mitchell, Columbia, SC, Glynn B. ### “Memories of You Dad”

*It's been the hardest thing to lose to you
You meant so much to me
But you are in my heart Dad
And that's where you'll always be
I know that Heaven called you
But I wish you could have stayed
At least the memories I have of you
They will never fade
I did not want to lose you
But you did not go alone
Because a part of me went with you
When Heaven called you home
So just remember one thing
We are not apart
You're with me in my memories
And in my broken heart
From Ulysessia*
