A Sister's Love

Destiny

Sis, you were a powerful motivating source, you were unstoppable, you broke through walls, you kicked doubt in the face, you put fear to bed, and you were strong in faith with overwhelming courage. Now you are walking in victory, You are in the hand of an unmoving God, You have moved toward your destiny.

Love,
Betty

It can be described, as experiences that are wrapped in memorable moments of a lifetime of special precious memories of our yester years of days gone by. It's special but rare, there is no distance that can break the bond that is shared between sisters. The memories are forever etched in our hearts. Teeth and tongue may fall out, as Mom use to say, but a sister loves, forgives and just keeps on loving you. We shared a special language, you said I am sorry and that you loved us and it was real. Leila you were a good sister and friend. You were a secret keeper, what was said it stayed between us. You had a sense when there was something wrong with one of us and would call to see if everything was alright.

Thank you for all the prayers you prayed for me. That's the way you showed your love. Leila truly you were a gentle giant that walked among us. I love you.

Lillian

Leila (Mamita)

You were kissed by Jesus, his love and redemption over your life. It made you a new creation in him, which made you courageous determined, unstoppable, victorious, loved, gifted, anointed, blessed, successful, healed, beautiful, whole, confident, forgiving, grateful, generous, strengthened, well-able, favored, delivered, nothing missing, nothing broken, God's Materpiece is what you are.

Much Love
