~I'm Free~

Don't grieve for me, for now I am free. I'm following the path God laid for me. I took his hand when I heard him call. I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day to laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way. I found that place at the close of the day. If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, ah yes, these things I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life has been full; I've savored much, good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief; don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your hearts and share with me, God wanted me now, He set me Free!

Obituary

Rosie Langston was born May 7, 1927 to the late Eli and Mary Langston in Raleigh, Tennessee. She was a born again Christian. She was a World Traveler, even able to visit lands as far as Okinawa, Japan. She was a lover of Jazz and R&B Music and was able to attend many concerts throughout her life. One of the most exciting points in her life was when she was cordially invited to the Mayor's Ball Affair in Atlanta, Georgia.

Rosie married James Andrew Williamson, Sr. and with this union four children were born: Patricia, Kenneth, James Jr., and Faith.

Rosie was preceded in death by her parents, sister, Lucille, brothers, Ivory and Milton; husband; and son, Kenneth Williamson. She leaves to cherish her memory, daughters, Patricia (Walter) and Faith (Allen D); and son, James Jr. (Queen); Rosie was the grandmother of 10 beloved grandchildren, 22 great grandchildren, and host of great grandchildren.
