

"Love"

My heart is filled with both sorrow and joy. You have given me the experience of being utterly loved – and that I will carry with me always. You were my soul mate, my rock, my best friend. When I didn't know what to do, you said "Let's pray". When I was saddened, you said "Let's pray". No matter what we encountered, you always pointed me to Christ. You inspired me in ways that I cannot explain. Dear Heart, we didn't get nearly enough time together. We had dreams and goals, but God in His infinite wisdom had other plans. Had someone told me that our time together would be cut short, I would have still stood on that beautiful day and said "I do" with no hesitation. Randy, you were an example of Christ's love for His Church, His bride. You loved me with an unconditional, unselfish love. As heart broken as I am – I know how blessed I have been. I am eternally grateful to God for allowing us to be re-united and to share a level of love that many will never know in a life time. I am forever in your debt for showing me what true love really is. You have been the best of me. Rest My Love, my sweet husband. I'll be seeing you.
