

~A Fallen Limb~

A limb has fallen from the family tree. I keep hearing a voice that says "Grieve Not For Me". Remember the best times, the laughter, and the song. The good life I lived while I was strong. Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you. Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through. My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest. Remembering all, how I truly was blessed. Continue traditions, no matter how small. Go on with your life, don't worry about falls. I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin. Until the day comes when we're together again.

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures, he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou prepares a table before me in the presence of mine enemies, thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Obituary

Cynthia Anita Morgan was born September 21, 1954, to the late James Williams and Mary Jean White. She attended and graduated from Dade County Public Schools System (Class of 1971). She grew up near Miami, FL in the suburb town of Seminola in Hialeah, FL, where she met and married her husband, Roger Morgan. Together, they became the proud parents of two daughters: the late Pyshanna Morgan and Tykeisha Morgan. Cynthia was raised in a loving home by her aunt, Janet Burgess, a devoted Christian who served the Lord and raised Cynthia in the fear and admonition of the Lord.

In 1999, Cynthia relocated to Jacksonville, FL where she was known to those who encountered her as a symbol of joy and laughter. Those who knew her said, "To know her is to love her". As a result of her Christian upbringing, Cynthia knew the importance of dedicating her time and talents to serve the Lord. She received full membership at Believers of Christ Temple Ministries in 2010. She faithfully served as a greeter and did the announcements inspirationally, having a thought for the day or story to share with the congregations, which was timely, encouraging, and often times humorous.

Cynthia was previously employed with State Farm Insurance Agency, Mayo Clinic, and also worked for the City of Jacksonville Tax Collector's Office. Prior to her going to be with the Lord, Ms. Cynthia Morgan was a Caretaker for the Elderly. Her occupations and day to day practices were filled with serving others.

Cynthia was preceded in death by her parents, James Williams and Mary Jean White; daughter, Pyshanna Morgan; aunt, Janet Burgess; grandmother, Bertha Mae Lawson; and siblings, Raynola Mitchell and Everett White. She leaves to cherish her memories: a loving daughter, Tykeisha Morgan; grandchildren, Marcus Jones, Jahmel Morgan, and Derreanna Williams; great grandchildren, Sariah Morgan, Josiah Morgan, and Kaila Morgan; siblings, Robert White, Jr, Barbara White, and Bessie Peterson; great-aunt, Christine Davis; aunts, Mary Ann Hay and Pamela Jones; special cousins, Tracy Hay, Romita Hay, and Tonya Frazier; best friends, Roena Jimerson and Wanda Moore; goddaughter, Missy Ann Jimerson; and a host of other family members and friends.

A Mother's Love

There is no other love like a Mother's love.....

A Mother's love: Is a sanctuary, where our souls can find sweet rest from the struggle and tension of life's fast and futile questions.

A Mother's love: Is like a tower, rising far above the crowd and her smile is like the sunshine, breaking through a threatening cloud.

A Mother's love: Is like a beacon, burning bright with faith and prayer and through the changing scenes of life we can find a haven there.

A Mother's love: Is fashioned after God's enduring love, it is endless and unfailing, like the love of Him above.

For God knew in His great wisdom that He couldn't be everywhere, so He put His little children in a loving mother's care.

Lord I thank you for the world's greatest mother you gave me.

We will love you always!
