"She Is Gone"

You can shed tears that she is gone Or you can smile because she has lived
You can close your eyes and pray that she will come back
Or you can open your eyes and see all that she has left Your heart can be empty because you can't see her
Or you can be full of the love that you shared You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday
Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday You can remember her and only that she is gone
Or you can cherish her memory and let it live on You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back
Or you can do what she would want: smile, open your eyes, love and go on.

Obituary

“Do not watch the petals fall from the rose with sadness, know that, like life, things sometimes must fade, before they can bloom again.” – Anonymous

Rosa L. Spear affectionately known to her family and friends as “Rose” was born on January 6, 1944 to Willie Lee Robinson and Willie Mae Robinson in Wrightsville, Georgia. Rose, was educated in the Washington County School System. She later relocated to Jacksonville, Florida where she was united in holy matrimony to the late Mr. Luke Spear.

Rose, accepted the Lord as her savior and her life was centered in the church at an early age. She was a member of Greater New Birth Missionary Baptist Church, where she served faithfully under the leadership of Dr. Levi White. Rose had a passion for singing and often travel with the “Little Rose and the Chosen Three.” To her family and friends she was well known for her cooking as well as a fashionista. She exemplified extraordinary love for her family as she was a loving caregiver to those in need.

Into each life some rain must fall. The rain fell on Thursday, October 1, 2020, when our dearly beloved Rose departed this life. She is preceded in death by her parents, Willie Lee Robinson and Willie Mae Robinson; granddaughter Shawna Smith; siblings, Arlene Robinson, Elgin (Gent) Robinson, Allene Williams, Freddie Robinson, Willie L. Robinson and Johnny B. Robinson.

“Beloved brothers and sisters, we want you to be quite certain about the truth concerning those who have passed away, so that you won’t be overwhelmed with grief like many others who have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, we also believe that God will bring with Jesus those who died while believing in him.” ~1 Thessalonians 4:13-14
