I would give my life to have you back, said his Mom.
I know you would, said her Son.
I cry each night for you, said his Mom.
And I catch all your tears said her Son.
I pray for the day that I can see you again, said his Mom.
Close your eyes and you can see me, said her Son.
You are the first person who loved me and you are the first person I loved.
You were always there when I needed you and you always knew when I needed a hug.
I am here for you now Mom. in your heart and in your soul.
I did not take your heart with me,
instead I left mine with you to hold.
One day I will take your hand and lead you to paradise,
but until then my beautiful Mother.

Remembering the Legacy of Precious Moments Of Johnathan Stanson Stenell Parker

Johnathan affectionately known to many as “Johnny Boo” was the son of Judy F. Parker and Pastor Harry M. Ford, Jr.

On March 19, 1988, God blessed his mother with a healthy baby boy who would forever be the apple of his mother’s eyes. Johnathan was reared in the city of Jacksonville and received his education in the Duval County Public School System. He was a member of Tru-Way Church of the Risen Christ.

Johnathan loved playing his video games and watching sports. He claimed the New England Patriots as his favorite NFL team, but all those who knew him can recall that he would switch teams quickly. He loved people and would talk endlessly to those he encountered. Johnathan was an independent and free-spirited young man who kept his mother on her toes.

On Saturday, November 7, 2020, God embraced Johnathan and took him into his loving care. Preceding him in death are his beloved grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. and Frances Parker; uncles, Terry and Phillip Parker; aunts, Dorothy Grambrell and Teresa Anderson; and cousin, Jamaal Hogans.

Johnathan leaves to cherish his memories: mother, Judy F. Parker; father, Harry M. Ford (Chandra); paternal grandmother, Veola Penny Scott; beloved aunts, Jackie McCoy, Janice Jackson, Carlotta Lee, Patricia Hicks and Crystal Footman; uncles, Devron Parker (Vanessa) and John S. Parker; cousins, Yolanda Parker Smith, Larishh Farmer, Larica Farmer, Kazon Mosley, Terry Parker, Ketoria Porter, Nicholas Parker, Jade Parker, and Ksena Amaris Israel; special friend, Domique McCoy; childhood friend, Jeremy Hudson; godparents, Billy McCoy and Erika Howard; and a host of cousins and many devoted friends.
