"Please Don't Cry For Me"

Leroy, as I lay here "sleep" in my fitted bed, I'm consumed with happiness and free from all the pain. Free from all the misery that has driven my soul free. Free from all negativity. So, son, stop beating yourself up, you did what I needed you to do. "Don't Cry For Me."

Sharon, don't cry. I am free from all the doctors who wanted to give up on me. Free from all the needles they were sticking in me. I am so proud of you for coming out every day and sitting with me. I know it will be hard for you but, "Don't Cry For Me".

Dion, I am free from self-pity, heartache, and pain. God has set my soul free so that I may fly again. Twenty-six suffering years was like dying at a slow pace. "Don't Cry For Me", for I'm in a better place.

To my grandchildren and the rest of my family, don't cry. Instead, rejoice and up-lift, for today my soul's at peace. Bow your precious heads in silence, but don't you dare "Cry For Me".
