~ A Fallen Limb ~

A limb has fallen from the family tree. I keep hearing a voice that says "Grieve Not For Me". Remember the best times, the laughter, and the song. The good life I lived while I was strong. Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you. Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through. My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest. Remembering all, how I truly was blessed. Continue traditions, no matter how small. Go on with your life, don't worry about falls. I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin. Until the day comes we're together again.

Acknowledgements

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair. Perhaps you sent a floral spray. If so, we saw it there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend would say. Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our spirits, we thank you so much from the bottom of our hearts. On behalf of the family, we wish to express our gratitude for your many kindnesses, as evidenced in thought and deed and for your audience at this service. May God bless you.

Obituary

Larry Stephen Jones was born October 1, 1949 in Jacksonville, Florida to Charlie and Geneva Jones. He attended the local schools starting with College Park, Susie E. Tolbert, James Weldon Johnson, and graduating from New Stanton High in 1969. He accepted Christ at an early age.

Larry was drafted into the United States Army in 1969 and served in Vietnam, where he was injured. He received the Purple Heart and other medals for his service.

Larry met and married Barbara Ann Bartley after leaving the service in 1972. He later married Jewel Stride, and to this union Tomicka and Larry E. Jones were born. Larry and Barbara reunited and remarried and were together until her death on August 28, 2012.

Larry was a die heart Steelers fan (undefeated). He enjoyed shooting pool (was a baller), fishing, basketball, baseball, and spending time with his family, especially his grands, and friends. He had a big heart and was always willing to help anyone, with a childlike spirit, he didn't meet strangers. He greeted everyone with a big smile.

Larry slept away on November 25, 2020. He was preceded in death by his wife, Barbara Ann; parents, Charlie and Geneva Jones; brothers, Charlie, Jr. (Jean) Robert, Lorenzo (Patricia) and Edwin Jones; and sister, Linda L. Wilson (James).

Larry is survived by: his children, Gene Freeman, Sr., Tomicka Cuvler, and Larry E. Jones; sisters, Ruth (Roy) McIntyre and Patricia L. Jones; sister-in-law, Gloria B. (James) Boyd; eight grandchildren; many nieces and nephews; special friend, Rita Jackson; and a host of other friends and neighbors. Larry will be truly missed by all that knew him.
