

"To Our Son"

How very softly you tiptoed into our world. Almost silently, only a moment you stayed. But what an imprint your footprints have left on our hearts.

Acknowledgement

There aren't enough words to fully express our heartfelt thanks for the sympathy, love and support each and everyone of you have extended to our family during this time of loss. Thank you so much.

Always In Our Hearts Lindsey Ray Barnhill, IV

The wind is blowing. The rain has been pouring. Days and nights are cold, our hearts have been stolen. You were born as a twin and you've left us single-handedly. . . . it's okay because God knew that the day you left us you were gonna be the little red bird that sits in the tree. That's my confirmation to me that you are free. Free from pain, free from hurt, and free from this cruel and evil world. So, today marks the day that I will walk with my head held high because I know you are right by my side. And when they speak on your name, they better know that you (my son) is in the Hall of Fame! But, these tears I cry of pain and hurt will finally turn into tears of Joy! I know I will see you again whenever the Lord calls my name and when that time comes, I will never let you go ever again. I love you little Lindsey, AKA Bam Bam.

Lindsey will be missed by: his mother, Romaya Leath; father, Lindsey Ray Barnhill III; sisters, London Jones and Legacy Barnhill; grandparents, Deshanta Goodman, Anthony Campbell, Anthony Johnson, Carmen Tyree, and Lindsey Barnhill, Jr.; great-grandmothers, Charlotte Robinson and Margie Goodman; and a host of aunts, uncles, and cousins.
