In Loving Memory of Dad

He never looked for praises. He was never one to boast. He just went on quietly working for the ones he loved the most. His dreams were seldom spoken, his words were very few and most of the time his worries, went unspoken too. He was there...

A firm foundation, through all our storms of life
A sturdy hand to hold on to, in times of stress and strife.
A true friend we could turn to when times were good or bad
One of our greatest blessing, the man that we call Dad.

Acknowledgement

Words are not adequate enough to express our gratitude for the many expressions of kindness shown to us during the loss of our loved one, Ulysses Davis. Your calls, cards, visits, flowers and prayers have given us strength and comfort for the journey ahead.

Obituary

Ulysses Davis was born on February 13, 1924, in Macon, Georgia to parents, Frank and Annie Davis. Ulysses was a devoted Christian who loved going to worship and praising God. He was a member of the Northside Church of Christ and the Christian Fathers Quartet. His clear tenor voice could be heard distinctly. He was an encouraging brother to all who knew him. Ulysses was married to the late Corine Davis, and a father that loved his children.

Ulysses was a hard-working brother who was never defeated by a task. He helped countless boys become responsible men. He showed them how to work for their family and often shared how he had to quit school in the third grade to provide for his mother and siblings.

He searched for his wife Corine daily. We would tell him he would see her again; then, we would sing and have a good old time! His prayers still ring in our ears today.

Ulysses passed quietly as he was called home on December 19, 2020. He will be cherished and remembered by those he left behind: sons; Horace Collins, Marion Collins, Marvin Collins, Jeffrey Collins, Don Collins, Herman Collins, and Ralph Collins (D.C.); daughters; Ellen D. Sanders (Bobby), Marva D. Cuthpert (Ronald), Georgia Burns, Sheryl Collins, Vivian Collins, Cathy Collins, and Ms. Cunningham; nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

To Those I Leave Behind

May the Lord bless you and keep you. May the Lord make his face to shine upon you and be gracious to you. May the Lord lift up his countenance upon you, and give you peace. (Numbers 6:24-26)

Until we meet again Love, Ulysses Davis
