Poem Of Life

Life is but a stopping place,
A pause in what's to be,
A resting place along the road
To sweet eternity.
We all have different journeys,
Different paths along the way,
We all were meant to learn some things
But never meant to stay...
Our destination is a place
Far greater than we know.
For some the journey's quicker,
For some the journey's slow.
And when the journey finally ends,
We'll claim a great reward,
And find an everlasting peace,
Together with the Lord.

Acknowledgement

Our sincere thanks to our many family members and friends, for every act of kindness, support, sympathy and your prayers during our time of bereavement. Your thoughtfulness has meant so much to us. May God bless each of you!

Obituary

Mr. Curtis Roberts, Sr. was born on May 29, 1940 in Jacksonville, Florida to Lary Winston Jones and Cleveland Jones.

Curtis became a Christian, accepting Christ as his Savior at an early age. Before he became challenged in his health, he was an active member in his church. He also played a pivotal role in his alma mater, Matthew Gilbert Class Reunion for over 20 years. He retired from the Glidden Plant in 1984, but decided he was not done yet; and worked as a security guard at Shands Hospital for a while, officially retiring in 2010.

Curtis was called home to be with the Lord on Sunday, January 10, 2021. He was preceded in death by his parents; his first wife, Mrs. Mary G. Roberts; son, Michael L. Green; and brother, Milford Roberts;

Curtis leaves to cherish his wonderful memories: his two sons, Curtis Roberts, Jr. (Louise) and Anthony J. Roberts (Corinna); daughter, Wanda Green; daughter-in-law, Diane Green; brother, Hal Roberts; and a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends of many years. He will be missed by all.

Broken Chain

We little knew that morning, God was going to call you home; in life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you, You did not go alone; for part of us went with you, the day God called you home. You left us beautiful memories. Your love is still our guide; and though we cannot see you, you are always by our side. Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same; but as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.
