To Those I Love And Those That Love Me

When I am gone, release me, let me go; I have so many things to see and do; you must not tie yourself to me with tears; be happy that we had so many years; I gave you my love, you can only guess how much you gave me in happiness; I thank you for the love you have shown but now it's time I traveled on alone. So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must then let your grief be comforted by trust. It's only for a while that we must part, so bless the memories within your heart. I won't be far away for life goes on so if you need me, call and I will come though you can't see me or touch me, I'll be near. And if you listen with your heart, you will hear, all my love around you, loud and clear. And then, when you must come this way alone, I'll greet you at Heaven's gate with a smile and a "Welcome Home."

Acknowledgements

Our heartfelt thanks and appreciation is extended to each of you who have shared in our loss. Each kind expression of love and sympathy has been a source of comfort to us and will forever be held dear in our hearts. May God richly bless and keep each of you is our prayer.

Obituary

On Friday, January 22, 2021, God called home Louise Jones Coleman. Louise was born on November 30, 1925 in Reynolds, Georgia to the late Ruby Wilder and Reddick Jones.

Louise attend the local schools in Reynolds and later moved to Jacksonville, Florida. She worked for the Duval County Public School System as a dietician and retired after 22 years of dedicated service. Louise was a faithful member of Little Zion Hope Primitive Baptist Church.

Louise leaves to mourn her passing: her loving husband, Harold Coleman; step-daughter, Harriett C. Chavis (Gerard); sister, Logie B. Henderson; sister-in-law, Bishop Everlena Dunn; grandchildren, Gerard Jr., Juwan, and Jeral Chavis; goddaughter, Phyllis Williams Bradley; friend, Walte Schofield; and a host of other relatives and friends.

A Journey With The Lord

Life is but a stopping place, a pause in what's to be, a resting place along the road, to sweet eternity. We all have different journeys, different paths along the way. We all were meant to learn some things, but never meant to stay. Our destination is a place, far greater than we know, for some, the journey's slow; and when the journey finally ends, We'll claim a great reward, and find an everlasting peace, together with the Lord.
