Our Special Is Beautiful

Fearless and strong with not a care in the world; Loving and sweet with smiles that make my heart beat. Laughter and chuckles that brightens my day; my special angels is what I love to say. Unable to walk, talk, feed or dress themselves; our special is beautiful is what I tell my girls. Countless surgeries and procedures with more in store; but God is so good I couldn't ask for more. Living with Cri Du Chat Syndrome has been a 2 in 1 spin; So many ups and downs but we're determined to win. This journey started with sadness and tears of worry but now these tears are part of our story.

Love Always, Mommy

Obituary

Aniyah Mary Marlana Gordon, affectionately known to her family as “Snuggie”, was born August 26, 2009 in Jacksonville, Florida to Donna Wilson and Ronald Gordon, Jr.

Snuggie was a fighter since birth; born with a rare condition called Cri Du Chat Syndrome and staying in the hospital for the first four months of her life, yet, she overcame every obstacle and brought joy to everyone she came in contact with. Snuggie loved lights, bright colors, and watching TV; and oh yes, she was a true daddy’s girl. Snuggie would bring a smile to your face even if you were having a bad day. She was just a burst of love and everyone loved her just as much. Snuggie attended Jumpstart Pediatrics and was a known favorite child throughout the Community PedsCare Hospice Program. To know Aniyah was to know true happiness from the heart. Her light always shined bright and will continue to shine for eternity.

Aniyah leaves behind her loving parents, Donna and Ronald Gordon, Jr.; siblings, Shekia Miles (AnTwan Johnson), Canaria Wilson, Cameron Gordon, and Chila Johnson; grandparents, Marlana R. Gordon, Mary F. Hall, and Hurbert Wilson, Sr.; aunts and uncles, Pastors Rodney and Latoya Gordon, Veronica Johnson (Christopher), Reance’ Gordon Jenkins (Willie), Christopher Randolph, Ardese Hall, Vanderlyn Johnson-Hayes Wright (Hiram), Julia Johnson, and Warren Johnson; godmother, Vonderlyn Johnson; niece and nephew, La’Stasia and Legend Johnson Miles; cousins, Zoria Williams, James Johnson, Timothy Johnson, ArTrese Hall, and LaTrese Hall Alexander (Fred II); health care professionals, Specialty Care Nurse, Tracie Selman, Primary Care MD, Dr. Kelly C. Komatz, and Certified Nursing Assistant, Tamela Stayntru-McFarland (Mike); and a host of other family members, friends, caregivers, doctors, and love ones.
