“A Fallen Limb”

A limb has fallen from the family tree. I keep hearing a voice that says “Grieve Not for Me” Remember the best times, the laughter, and the song. The good life I lived while I was strong, continue my heritage. Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through. My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest, I can reside beside my mom, dad and my son Willie. There is peace here, joy, happiness, no more pain or headache, no pills, no taking insulin for my diabetes or doctors to visit, only sweet serenity. I can dine at the Master’s bountiful table and sing with the Heavenly Choir. Remembering all, how I was truly blessed to be a part of so many lives, go on with your life, don’t worry about falls. I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin until the day comes we’re together again.
