"I'm Free"

Don't grieve for me, for now I am free. I'm following the path God laid for me. I took his hand when I heard him call. I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day to laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way. I found that place at the close of the day. If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, oh yes, these things, I will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life has been full; I've savored much, good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief; don't lengthen it now with undue grief. God wanted me now, He set me Free.

Acknowledgements

Words of thanks seem so inadequate for all of the kindness that has been bestowed upon our family. We thank you for the encouraging visits, the comforting calls, the lovely cards, the beautiful floral arrangements and the sincere words of solace. We are finding strength in knowing earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal. May God bless you richly for blessing us.

Obituary

Marvin Edward Hearman was born on September 18, 1938 in Gainesville, Florida to Joe Hearman and Mattie Hearman. Marvin was a long time truck driver who retired as a car hauler from Allied Automotive. He was a devoted husband, father, grandfather, brother and friend. He had the biggest heart of anyone and wasn't scared to show his love and was always the first to forgive. Marvin enjoyed fishing, driving trucks, and spending time with his family and friends. He loved to laugh, tell bad jokes, and talk about the Lord. Although we know he is in a better place, our hearts will never be the same.

Marvin departed this life at the age of 82, on Wednesday, May 26, 2021 in his home with his family by his side. He was preceded in death by his parents; brother, Carlton Hearman; sister, Jean Cole; and brother-in-law, Otis Cole.

Marvin is survived by his loving wife of 37 years, Cynthia Hearman; children, Marvin Hearman, Pamela Williams (Larry), Shawn Hearman, Ami Boone (Deke), Robert Hearman (Amber), Brandy Frazier (Kelvin) and Gabriel Hearman; sister, Lovie Gardner Johnson (Jay); beloved grandchildren, Marvin, Darrion, Larry, Keyshawn, Kyle, Riley, Haileigh, Aubrey, Olivia and Aidan; devoted nephew, Rodney Hearman; a host of nieces, nephews, great grandchildren; a cherished long time friend, Beter Nelson (Sandra) and a host of other loved family members and friends.
