To Those I Love & Those That Love Me

When I am gone, release me, let me go; I have so many things to see and do; you must not tie yourself to me with tears; be happy that we had so many years; I gave you my love, you can only guess how much you gave me in happiness; I thank you for the love you have shown but now it's time I traveled on alone.

So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must then let your grief be comforted by trust. It's only for a while that we must part, so bless the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away for life goes on so if you need me, call and I will come though you can't see me or touch me, I'll be near. And if you listen with your heart, you will hear, all my love around you, loud and clear. And then, when you must come this way alone, I'll greet you at Heaven's gate with a smile and a "Welcome Home."

Acknowledgement

Our sincere thanks to our many family members and friends, for every act of kindness, support, sympathy and your prayers during our time of bereavement. Your thoughtfulness has meant so much to us. May God bless each of you!

Obituary

Korrey Lamont Clayton was born February 24, 1985, in Jacksonville, Florida to Catherine and Anthony Clayton. As a kid he was funny, playful, and clever and he enjoyed watching WWE wrestling and playing football on a team coached by his father.

Korrey graduated from Frank Peterson High School in Jacksonville, Florida. He began working at UPS for about one year until his health began to fail him. Even in sickness, he remained strong and kept fighting. Though his health presented him with many challenges, he always tried his best to be a positive light to those around him.

As strong-willed and upbeat as he was, God knew he was tired and on Saturday, February 5, 2022, God called him home to rest in perfect peace. He was at Kindred Hospital in Green Cove Springs. Korrey was preceded in death by his grandmothers, Arzula Keys and Doris Weathers.

Korrey leaves to mourn his passing: his parents, Catherine and Anthony Clayton; siblings, and his extended family and friends. He touched the lives of more people than we can name, and his loss is deeply felt.
