"If Tears Could Build A Stairway"

If tears could build a stairway, and memories a lane. I would walk right up to Heaven and bring you back again. No farewell words were spoken, no time to say "Goodbye". You were gone before I knew it, and only God knows why. My heart still aches with sadness, and secret tears still flow. What it meant to love you, no one can ever know. But now I know you want me to mourn for you no more; to remember all the happy times life still have much in store. Since you'll never be forgotten, I pledge to you today, A hollowed place within my heart is where you'll always stay.

Acknowledgement

On behalf of the family, we wish to express our gratitude for your many kindnesses, as evidence in thought and deed, and for your attendance at this service.

Obituary

Timothy Juan Middlebrooks, Jr.

Timothy was born on August 14, 2003 in Jacksonville, Florida to Timothy Middlebrooks Sr. and Vatasha Watson. He confessed Christ at an early age where he was baptized at St. Paul Missionary Baptist Church.

Timothy was a graduate of William M. Raines High School, where he graduated with honors, he was a member of the National Honor Society and loved both of his parents dearly in addition to being an Avid Gamer. Timothy was known as a loner, but was committed to his job at Publix before joining the I.L.A. Timothy was also a member of the Jacksonville Police Athletic League.

Timothy departed this life on February 25, 2022. He was preceded in death by his grandfathers, James Graham and Miller Freeman; grandmother, Dorothy Freeman.

Timothy leaves to mourn his passing: loving parents, Timothy Middlebrooks, Sr. and Vatasha (William) Watson; grandmother, Adel Haines; great-grandfather, Robert Jackson; brother, Carlton (Jakeria) Hayward; sister, Tehonour Middlebrooks; uncle, Joseph Haines; aunt, Danielle Stafford; nieces, Jersey and Jalynn Hayward; godmother, Deidra Gibson; best friends, Phillip Roscoe and Ian Williams II; extended family includes, Nicole Donald and Janice Sewell; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Timothy was known for his loving spirit and beautiful smile. He will truly be missed by many.
