“Not How Did He Die, But How Did He Live”

Not, how did he die, but how did he live? Not, what did he gain, but what did he give? These are the units to measure the worth of a man as a man, regardless of his birth. Nor what was his church, nor what was his creed? But had he befriended those really in need? Was he ever ready, with words of good cheer, To bring back a smile, to banish a tear? Not what did the sketch in the newspaper say, But how many were sorry when he passed away?

Obituary of Gregory Maurice Reid, Sr.

Sunrise

Sunset

Greg was born on May 31, 1950, in Bronx, New York, to the late Robert Reid Sr. and Bernice Alberty Durham. In Jacksonville, Greg received his education in the Duval Public School System. Here in middle school, he met the love of his life, Maxine McClendon. Greg would later graduate in 1968 from Matthew W. Gilbert High School.

After uniting with Maxine in holy matrimony, Greg enlisted in the United States Air Force, where he served his country faithfully for four years and received an Honorable Discharge. He spent his career working for The United States Postal Service and The International Longshoreman Association, retiring from both after 31 and 34 years of service, respectively.

An avid sports fan, Greg was a dedicated supporter of his favorite team, the Miami Dolphins. He enjoyed filling a room with musical sounds of his favorite R&B and soul classics from the 1960s and 1970s. Greg also loved a good casino, but for all his passions, none meant more than the love he had for spending time with his family.

Greg was a son, husband, father, brother, grandfather, uncle, cousin, and friend during his lifetime. He departed this life on Thursday, March 3, 2022. He was 71 years old.

Greg leaves behind to cherish his memory, his devoted wife of 52 years, Maxine Jerlyn Reid; son, Gregory Maurice Reid Jr. (Britney); daughters, Tracy Bryant (Derrick) and Maura Reid; sisters, Brenda Reid and Regina Plaire (Glenn); brothers, Michael Reid (Melinda), Timothy Reid (Sharon), Ronald Durham, and Robert Reid (Regina); sisters-in-law, Jacquelyn Clark (Horace), Linda Barfield (George), Rosetta Borden, Sylvia McClendon, Mary Alvin (Daryl), Ruby Price (Murvine), and Wanda Allen (Willie Sr.), Verneese McClendon; brothers-in-law, Ernest Pitts (Bridgette), James Lundy (Barbara), and Donald McClendon (Linda); nine grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, loved ones and friends.
