Those We Love Remain With Us

*Those we love remain with us for love itself lives on,
and cherished memories never fade because a loved one's gone.
Those we love can never be more than a thought apart, for as long as there is memory, they'll live on forever in the heart.*

Acknowledgement

We are eternally thankful for all the many acts of kindness you have shown us. Your calls, visits, love and especially your prayers have given us strength and encouragement during a time of sorrow. Our prayer is that God continues to bless and keep you in his care.

Obituary

He who dwells in the secret place of the most high God shall abide under the shadows of the almighty. I will say of the Lord, "He is my refuge and my fortress, My God, in whom I trust." ~ Psalm 91:1-2

L.C. Miller was born on February 25, 1926 in Boyton, VA to the late Redfield Miller, Sr. and Ophelia Fowler Miller.

He was a loving, kind, gentleman with a very calm spirit. He took time with everybody, old, young, or in between. L.C. was a gentle giant in a 6'4 frame. He gave his life to Christ in the early 70's and never looked back. He applied the word to his heart daily until his last breath on Monday, April 11, 2022. L.C. served his country in three Wars: World War II, Korean War, and the Vietnamese War. The Lord delivered him safely home each time.

L. C. leaves to cherish his memories: two daughters, D."Moe" (A son he never had "Sam" Fuller), Dee Lockley (Fredrick); six grandchildren: Leilani Catus, Shawanna Scott (Greg), Bobby Thomas, Jr. (Angel), Christie Thomas, Brian Thomas (Kim), and Carlette Thomas; four great-grandchildren, Chris Jr., Kori, B.J., and BrookLynn, all of Jacksonville, FL. He was an Elder at North Jacksonville Family Worship Center, where the honorable Leon R. Bing is his Pastor. L.C. has one brother, J.W. Miller (Mary), a host of nieces, nephews, and a church family who truly loved him and many others.

L.C. was preceded in death by his sisters and brothers, Mary Ross, Nannie Harris, Charles Miller, Virginia Glenn, Jane Gardner, Redfield Miller, Jr., Margaret Miller, and Carrie Miller.
