Those We Love Remain With Us

*Those we love remain with us for love itself lives on,
and cherished memories never fade because a loved one's gone.
Those we love can never be more than a thought apart, far as long as there is memory, they'll live on forever in the heart.*

Acknowledgements

Perhaps you made a comforting call or sat quietly in a chair
Perhaps you sent a card or dish of food: if so we saw it there
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words any friend could say,
Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much
Whatever the part, may God Bless You.

Obituary

James (J.C.) Clarence Jenkins was born in Astoria, Georgia on November 19, 1930 to his parents, Willie and Alice Jenkins. He confessed to Christ at an early age uniting with Central Christian Methodist Church where he was baptized. He attended schools in Homerville, Georgia and he received his education at Old Stanton High School.

He later met and married Clander M. Cooper in Homerville, Georgia on September 11, 1948. From this union one son was born, W. Kenneth Jenkins and five daughters, Sherri L. Myles, Carolyn E. Jenkins, Kim L. Moreland, Clander D. Johnson, and Sonya L. Jenkins.

James departed this life on Monday, May 23, 2022 and was preceded in death by: daughter, Sonya L. Jenkins; grandson, Jerrod D. Jenkins; two sisters and two brothers.

He leaves to mourn his passing: wife, Clander C. Jenkins; son, W. Kenneth Jenkins; daughters, Sherri (Dan) Myles, Carolyn Jenkins, Kim (Anthony) Moreland, and Clander (Carl) Johnson; fifteen grandchildren; thirty-one and a half great grandchildren; and one great great granddaughter; one brother, Lester Williams; and a host of other relatives and friends.
