

Celebration of Life

FOR

DON'T CRY

When tomorrow starts without me,
and you see I'm not there.

Put your sorrows aside, for I left you memories to share.

As the sun rises, and your eyes are filled with tears; just know I'm blessed and enjoyed all my beautiful years.

I hope you don't continue to cry, the way you have today.

While thinking of the many things we didn't get a chance to say.

I know how much you love me, just as much as I have loved you. I am blessed to be able to transition into something new.

Tomorrow will start without me. Please try to understand. God called me home and took me by my hand.

Even though we are apart, a piece of me will forever be in your heart.

Life Reflections

Patricia

ANN
HOBDY-DAVIS

Patricia Ann Hobdy-Davis was the 1st born to Josh and Ella Hobdy on Monday, April 22nd, 1946 in Gainesville, Florida.

She graduated from Lincoln H.S. class of 1963 and then attended Howard Commuciation College. Pat lived a full life moving from Gainesville, Florida to Springfield, Massachusetts, to Limo, Ohio when finally residing in Lawrenceville, Ga. Working in corporate America, balancing multiple jobs and family at the same time until battling many obstacles from asthma, diabetes, tumors and cancer. She underwent many surgeries, and didn't allow any doctors to put an expiration on her being.

Patricia is what you would've call "A Warrior Woman". With leading determination to become self-sufficient into owning her own Golden Ark named Grand Affairs. Her business was Directive Coordination, Millinery, Tailoring, and Upholstery.

She mastered sewing, decorating, and creating anything to everything you could've ever imagined Hobdy. She loved cooking, watching football, playing games and especially spending time with family and friends.

Pat was truly what she would call others; "The Welcome Wagon".

She was preceded in death by her brother James Wayne Hobdy and step-son Jerome Davis.

She leaves behind her beloved husband of 40 years James Davis; two sons: Patrick Hobdy and Adrian Davis. Along with step children Tony, Tyrone, James (Tammie), Maurice (Cassandra), Wanda (Kevin), Lexis (Latara), and Wendy, one bonus daughter Sariah. Her tree of life has 23 grandchildren and 18 great grandchildren; one brother: Josh "Mickey" (Evelyn) Hobdy; one sister: Janice Hobdy, a host of brother-in-laws, sister-in-laws, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Pat has planted her seeds and it continues to grow!
