~A Fallen Limb~

A limb has fallen from the family tree. I keep hearing a voice that says "Grieve Not For Me". Remember the best times, the laughter, and the song. The good life I lived while I was strong. Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you. Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through. My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest. Remembering all, how I truly was blessed. Continue traditions, no matter how small. Go on with your life, don't worry about falls. I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin. Until the day comes we're together again.

Acknowledgement

On behalf of the family, we wish to express our gratitude for your many kindnesses, as evidenced in thought and deed, and for your audience at this service.

Obituary

Shaneka Sharon Weaver, 36 of Petersburg, Virginia, gained her wings on July 20, 2022. She was born in Jacksonville, FL to the late Dionne Michelle Bradley and Michael Allen Johnson, Sr.

Shaneka attended the local Elementary and Middle Schools in Jacksonville, FL and obtained her High School diploma before moving to Virginia where she met her husband, Larry Weaver.

Shaneka was known as Mrs. Piggy or Nek. She was a loving Wife, Sister, Auntie and Cousin. She loved her family, especially her nieces and nephews. She always wanted to see her family get together and loved her crabs.

Shaneka was preceded in death by her great-grandparents, Sam and Louise Jiles; grandmother, Shirley Henry; mother, Michelle Bradley; uncle, Charles Henry; and multiple other caring and wonderful relatives. She leaves to cherish her memory her loving husband Larry Weaver; brothers, Michael Johnson, Julius Riles. and Allen Johnson; sisters, Tashell Byard and Ashley Goodman; uncle, Leonard Warren Douglass (Nicole); a host of great uncles and aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins, and mourning friends.
