~A Fallen Limb~

A limb has fallen from the family tree. I keep hearing a voice that says "Grieve Not For Me". Remember the best times, the laughter, and the song. The good life I lived while I was strong. Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you. Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through. My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest. Remembering all, how I truly was blessed. Continue traditions, no matter how small. Go on with your life, don't worry about falls. I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin. Until the day comes we're together again.

Acknowledgment

Perhaps you made a comforting call or sat quietly in a chair
Perhaps you sent a card or dish of food: if so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words any friend could say,
Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much.
Whatever the part, may God bless you.

Obituary

For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

~ Romans 8: 38-39

Barbara Jean Clark Kirce was born in Macon, Georgia on March 18th, 1945, to Alphonso Clark and Willie Mae Alford Clark. She moved to Jacksonville along with her six brothers and two sisters. She attended and graduated from Mathew W. Gilbert, with the Class of '63. She began attending Jones Business College at Jacksonville and started her illustrious career with Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Florida. She then engaged her entrepreneurial spirit to have several successful ventures, including a hair salon and home décor business.

While working for Blue Cross, she met her life-long love in Thomas S. Kirce and raised 3 wonderful children.

Barbara left us on Friday, August 5th, 2022 at Baptist Medical Center in Downtown Jacksonville surrounded by family. She was preceded in death by her daughter, Tonya Thomas; father, Alphonso Clark; mother, Willie Mae Clark; brothers, Augusta, Cyril, Earnest, Jack, and Robert; and sister, Geraldine.

Barbara leaves behind: husband, Thomas S Kirce; sons, Sean C. Kirce and Tori S. Kirce (Tinisha); grandchildren, Britney Smith (Darrell), Courtney Johnson (Jakwaun), Sean D. Kirce, Christian Kirce, and Tamir Kirce; great-grandchildren, Cayden, Anayia, and Jayce; sister, Catherine Albright; brother, Lendwood Clark; and a host of countless other loved ones, family, and friends.
