

+Celebration of Life+

Our Angel Brianne:

Bri unselfishly thought about what was good for others by bringing them joy, making them laugh, and always showing them love.

She was tenacious because she never gave up on her dreams and she never stop trying to be the best that she could be, in everything she did. She always aimed to succeed!

She was very fashionable! But, her kind heart and sweet spirit outweighed her stunning outfits, gucci sandals, and red bottoms. She shined brighter than any diamond or piece of jewelry she wore because her personality was brighter than the sun.

After working with her parents and being taught at an early age the value of entrepreneurship, Bri showed us what it means to persevere, through her dedication and commitment to her own business.

Bri traveled and enjoyed her time on this earth. She always wanted what was best for her family and her friends. She will always have a place and a space, in hearts and in our minds.

Although she's resting, her memory is a blessing. She touched many and was loved by plenty. Our tears will fall, but GOD knows it all.

A TRUE FAMILY MEMBER & FRIEND, WHO IS FOREVER IN OUR HEARTS!

Memory Tributes

Who is Brianne Janese Culler to me?
 A true authentic individual.
 A rare jewel, indeed. I called her my multi purpose friend. Why? We cooked for each other, we clubbed together, we prayed together, we achieved a workout journey together, we traveled together, we encouraged each other & we planned missions together. She was such a strong spirited person. There was not a conversation or situation that she never supported or encouraged me through. She was always about her handling her business/businesses & loved very hard. Her family was a top priority to her. She always stood on respect loyalty & was passionate about her loved ones. My son & I will forever be grateful for knowing a phenomenal woman she cared for for me & him. I would like to thank her parents for sharing such an amazing woman with me. She will forever be missed & in my heart.
 -Bresha-

To my forever friend Bri,
 Thank you for being a great example of a true friend. Your love, loyalty, honesty, compassion, support and kindness never went unnoticed. Because of you, I had the courage to travel around the world. Because of you, I was inspired to strengthen my relationship with God. Because of you, I was inspired to chase my dreams and become an entrepreneur. You were truly an inspiration and positive light in my life and I'm so thankful that God blessed me to be one of your best friends. Through me, your memory will forever live on. Gone but not forgotten. May your soul rest in peace and harmony. I love you forever ❤️

Love Bresha

To my lil big sister Riyah(insider),
 I love you and I'm going to miss you. Thank you for the knowledge & the wisdom over the years. Thank you for the good times. Since we were young, you always was the boss of the show. You was the boss of this fight. You've always been fearless and never afraid to try new things or go new places. Always planning all of the family trips and holiday celebrations. We're going to miss you, who is going to nagg us about being last minute?
 Sneaky but wise, you always wanted to be seen but not heard. Your presence alone turned heads when you entered a room. Your eyes, your smile. You were always glammed up and ready for the party with your shot in your hand. We're going to miss you so much. Brenee, you, & I was the migos. You was quavo lol.
 I love you. Get your rest & forever watch over us. Guard your nieces and nephews forever (rich auntie). They're going to miss you.

Forever My Baby Girl

Bestie Bae

To my BestieBae Brienne,

As much as I want to cry and break down, I know you wouldn't want me to. I'm staying strong for you and I'll remain strong forever in honor of you.

Such a beautiful soul you were. I thank God for placing you in my life 15 years ago. From roaming the halls of First Coast to taking trips out the country.

I remember when I met you, you told me your name was "Brianna". And everybody knew you as that. Lol then you asked your mama what your name was and she said "Brienne". Lol either way, you'll always be Bri.

I was sad when you moved to Atlanta but we still maintained our friendship despite the distance. Then you kept asking when I was going to move to Atlanta, then I made the move in 2015. And the rest is history.

You were always destined for greatness and you surpassed that in the most humblest way. Your accomplishments before 25 and after were admirable to say the least. I'd brag about you any chance I got. "My best friend is a mf Boss", I would say. A true hustler indeed. You set so many goals for yourself and set out to accomplish them by any means necessary.

You made sure that you enjoyed the life you lived. We constantly planned trips even when we had to work lol. Nobody understood our schedule like we understood it. We would always say, "working in our restaurants ain't for the weak". But we was ten toes down.

Your strength and faith, is what I admired the most. We uplifted each other through difficult times. And during the past two years, you were the strongest I've witnessed. God gives his toughest battles to his strongest soldiers. You acquired peace above all else. You fought silently, but your presence was still known.

My heart is so broken. Who will I text? Who will I call? Who will always be down to take a trip with me? I'll forever cherish every conversation, every video, every call, every outing, every trip, and every picture. Memories that will last a lifetime indeed.

I love you and I will miss you dearly. I will NEVER forget about you, never. You made your mark.

I ask that you please watch over me.

I thank you for being my best friend. I thank you for your honesty. I thank you for your loyalty. I thank you for being there during it all. I thank you for loving me like a friend and a sister, and most of all, I thank you for always remaining true to yourself.

Brienne Janese Culler, I'll always play your anthem The Baddest B*tch. A true FL girl.

You can rest now.

With Love,

Brienne J. Culler
