Acknowledgements

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or e-message or sat quietly in a chair. Perhaps you sent a funeral spray, if so, we saw it there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say; Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much, whatever the part.

Obituary

Mrs. Annie Virginia Butts-Brown, born in Cordelle, Georgia, on October 8, 1934, was the ultimate multihyphenate. She was a daughter, wife, mother, aunt, and friend to many. Mrs. Brown was also a dedicated church worker at Zion Hope Missionary Baptist Church, a cherished neighbor in the Magnolia Gardens neighborhood, a successful Mary Kay director, and a public servant elected to the City of Jacksonville's Civil Service Board in 1991.

Mrs. Brown gave her life to Christ at an early age uniting with Mount Calvary Baptist Church, where she was baptized. She attended Duval County's public schools graduating from Stanton High School in 1950. Mrs. Brown furthered her education at Kentucky State University and graduated from Florida A & M University in 1956. She later married her beloved husband Clanzel T. Brown, Sr., who predeceased her in 1982. Mrs. Brown was also predeceased by her little brother, George Butts, Jr., adoring daughter, Ava Marie Johnson-Kelsey, and devoted parents, George & Eva Mae (Rushing) Butts.

Mrs. Brown departed this mortal coil on Saturday, December 24, 2022, to be with the Lord leaving a legacy of service, faith, family, and joie de vivre to her children, Clanzenetta (Lee), Clanzel II, Clanzerria Brown, and Clanzedric (Sandra).

Also left to honor her memory and manner are Mrs. Brown's grandchildren (Angel (Bill) Johnson; Tina & Thomas Kelsey; Taen & Terrel (Komuni) Campbell; Viveca Brown; Clanzel Brown III; and Marcel & Vincent Tharrington), and great-grandchildren (Jordan Harrel; AvaRae' Richo; Shannel, Ali, and Jerome Brown-Campbell; Taj Campbell; and Cameron Tharrington).

Mrs. Brown is also survived by sisters-in-law, (Pearl Jones, Doris Black, and Delores Brown), a cousin (Dorothy Gaskins), and many much-loved nieces, nephews, godchildren, neighbors, family, and friends.
