*Losing a Friend,
Losing a Grandparent*

Poem Of Life

*Life is but a stopping place, A pause in what's to be,
A resting place along the road, To sweet eternity.*

*We all have different journeys, Different paths along the way.
We all were meant to learn some things, But never meant to stay...*

*Our destination is a place, Far greater than we know.
For some the journey's quicker, For some the journey's slow.*

*And when the journey finally ends, We'll claim a great reward.
And find an everlasting peace, Together with the Lord*

Acknowledgements

Perhaps you made a comforting call or sat quietly in a chair
Perhaps you sent a card or dish of food: if so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words any friend could say,
Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day,
Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much.
Whatever the part, may God bless you.

Obituary

Love is patient and is kind. Love doesn't envy. Love doesn't brag, is not proud,⁵ doesn't behave itself inappropriately, doesn't seek its own way, is not provoked, takes no account of evil;⁶ doesn't rejoice in unrighteousness, but rejoices with the truth;⁷ bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, and endures all things. ⁸Love never fails.

~ 1 Corinthians 13:4-8

Thomas Sinclair Kirce, Jr was born in Jacksonville, Florida on September 23, 1937, to Thomas Sinclair Kirce Sr. and Lillian Kohn Kirce. They lived in the Sweetwater area on Luke Street. Thomas was the eldest of six siblings. To support his family, he left high school to begin working at Skinner's Dairy. Then, moved on to Florida Steel where he spent 25 years as a metal caster. He was well known as a hard and dedicated worker and friend to all. Between this time, he found and married the love of his life, Barbara Jean Clark, in 1974. They had nearly 50 fantastic years together! He enjoyed his family and friends until he was called to be with LORD.

Thomas left us on Saturday, January 28th 2023. He was preceded in death by the love of his life, his spouse, Barbara Jean Kirce; daughter, Tonya Thomas; father, Thomas Sinclair Kirce Sr.; mother, Lillian Kohn Kirce; brother, Edward Kirce; sister, Francis Kirce Wilson; sister, Joyce Kirce Dixon; and brother, Robert Kirce.

Thomas leaves behind: sons, Sean Kirce and Tori Kirce (Tinisha); grandchildren, Britney Smith (Darrell), Courtney Johnson (Jakwaun), Sean D. Kirce, Christian Kirce, and Tamir Kirce; great-grandchildren, Cayden, Anayia, and Jayce; sister, Elizabeth Kirce; and a host of countless nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
